WASHINGTON.

Simon Cameron Learns a Lesson

Mr. Wade Not a Candidate for Governor of Ohio—Senator Carpenter to Speak on San Domingo and Defend the Administration, &c., &c.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 31, 1871.

Check—and Check.

Simon Cameron is learning that it is one thing to be Chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, and another to be recognized as the leader of the foreign policy of the Senate. To-day the Joint High Commission accompanied by Gen. Schenck, visited the Capitol, and after listening to Bingham's speech in the House, came over to the Senate. Various members of the Commission were soon engaged in conversation with several Senators, among them Sumner, whom they all treated in the most cordial manner. Finally Earl de Grey took Sumner to a sofa in the corner of the Senate chamber, evidently for the purpose of private conversation, and they both took a seat thereon. They had been talking together but a few minutes when Cameron got up and came over to where these gentlemen were, and took a seat beside them. Earl de Gray instantly turned, shook hands with Cameron, and then proceeded with his conversation with Sumner, as if there had been no interruption. Cameron sat watching them for full ten minutes, and finding that no further attention was paid him, arose, stood with his hands in his pockets, looking considerably embarrassed, as if he did not know exactly what to do, and then walked back to his own seat. The incident created considerable amusement to several Senators who observed it.

Wade Not a Candidate for Governor.

Ex-Senator Wade expresses surprise at the use of his name as a candidate for Governor of Ohio. He is of opinion that a younger man and one more actively identified with politics than himself should be made the nominee. He is now entirely out of the political arena, and says he wishes to remain so for the balance of his life.

Postmaster at Nashville.

Prosser, the defeated candidate for Congress last fall in the Nashville District, was to-day confirmed as Postmaster at Nashville.

Senator Carpenter to Take Up the Cudgel for the President.

It is stated that Matt Carpenter is preparing a speech on annexation, to be delivered when the report of the San Domingo Commissioners is submitted to the Senate by the President, which will probably be next Monday. It is also said that he will take advantage of this occasion to defend the administration from Sumner's late attack by reason of unconstitutional interference in Haytien affairs, which he could not do when this topic was under discussion in the early part of the week, on account of ill health.

HARRISBURG.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE HOUSE.

The Republican Appropriation Bill Passed Without Amendment.

Special to the Pittsburgh Press.

HARRISBURG, PA., March 31, 1871.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The Apportionment Bill—The Dead Lock.

The House devoted its whole time to the Republican Apportionment bill, which passed finally by a party vote, and will go to the Senate as reported by the House Committee on apportionment without amendment. The Democrats alleged openly that the Senate would refuse to adjourn till a satisfactory bill was passed. The Republicans, in response, asserted that they would carry a bill fair to them or be satisfied at the next election with the apportionment of 1864. The Senate and House are certainly at a dead lock on this question.

The House adjourned till Tuesday morning.

An Army Organizing in the Interest of Order—A Desperate Struggle Anticipated—A Significant Whisper—The Guillotine.

LONDON, March 31.—The Independence Belge states that Ulric Fouvenille is organizing a force of 300,000 National Guards at St. Germaine for the support of law and order.

A special dispatch to the London Times anticipates an approaching struggle, which must be desperate in character. Le Vengeur threatens the forcible ejection of the National Assemble from Versailles. The insurgents seem to be confident that the Government troops will not fight. Blonque has information that the Paris Cabinet has imitated the example set by Mazzini in founding his Ministry at Rome. Communal Council is deliberating on a proposal to pay the Prussian indemnity by selling Versailles for one million francs to the Anglo-American Company, St. Cloud for 800,000,000 francs to a German gambling proprietor, and Fontainebleau for five hundred million francs.

The Daily News special dispatch from Versailles says the Government stop all horses and cattle from entering Paris. Mails to and from Paris are greatly delayed, and will be suspended entirely. The Commune is actively disarming loyal Nationals.

The evening edition of the Times contains a letter discribing the situation in Paris as critical. The gravest apprehension is felt in all quarters, measures of proscription are secretly enforced everywhere, and the significant word "Guillotine," though spoken only in whispers, is in everybody's mouth.

The Evening Standard has a dispatch reporting that the Germans will occupy Paris immediately upon the downfall of the Thiers government.

A proclamation from the Commune predicts a universal republic.

The insurrection in Marseilles is dying out. Lyons is quiet.

A dispatch from Paris says the Communal Council holds its deliberations in private, but the following information has been divulged: An Executive Committee of seven members has been appointed. The Commune is divided into nine sections, finance, war, judges, safety, subsistence, education, labor, foreign and municipal.

Postal Service Disorganized.

PARIS, March 31.—Delegates to the Commune National surrounded the general post office to-day, and prevented its transfer to Versailles. The postal service is completely disorganized. The Electoral Committee demands a rigid scrutiny into the elections on Sunday last.

THE OIL REGIONS.

The New Well on Milton Farm.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

FRANKLIN, March 31, 1871.

The excitement caused by the strike on the Milton Farm is increasing, and fancy prices are being paid for interests in the neighborhood. Major D. B. Irwin, of Franklin, sold half of the working interest in a fifty acre lease to-day to Fisher Bros. for twenty thousand dollars, and twenty-five thousand was offered for the other half this afternoon. The well is steadily increasing, and is pumping fully seventy barrels per day.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

Quarter Sessions—Judge Collier.

The case of the Commonwealth vs. Michael Harrington, Sidney Davis, Oliver Gibson and Robert Sickman, indicted for riot and for malicious mischief, was taken up. The affray out of which the case originated occurred in McKeesport on the night of the 18th of February, at a tavern kept by Christ Becker, where the defendants assembled and after taking several drinks raised a row and attempted to "clean out" the establishment. On trial.

Fifth Avenue Market House.

The sub-committee of Council on the building of the Fifth avenue Market House, have presented a report recommending the Committee to withhold additional payments to the contractor for its erection until he complies with the plans and specifications made when he agreed to do the work. A resolution has also been referred to the Building Committee providing for the appointment of an arbitrator to settle the matter. As the matter stands it looks very much as if this dead lock, between the Market Committee and the builder, will cause still greater delay in the completion of the Fifth avenue Market House.

Bismarck's Opinion of the Insurrection.

The Sub-Central Committee Conveys its Powers to the Communal Council—Decree from Versailles—Documents from the Versailles Government Forbidden Circulation in Paris.

LONDON, March 31.—Advices from Paris state that at noon yesterday the sub-Central Committee remitted its powers to the Communal Council, and that a proclamation announcing the fact to the citizens was at once issued. A decree was also made public abolishing conscription, stating that no force except National Guards will be introduced into Paris, and ordering that all able-bodied male citizens shall belong to the National Guard. Another decree remits lodgers rents from October, 1870, to April, 1871, and says the rents to be paid shall be reckoned by months.

The sale of all pawned articles is suspended.

Another decree orders all public officials on pain of dismissal to disregard the orders emanating from Versailles.

The Government Place Vendome is placarded with the decrees of the Communists.

All documents from the Versailles government are forbidden circulation in Paris.

The Deputies Delescluse and Cournient, desiring to remain with the Communists, have resigned their seats in the Assembly.

A proclamation bearing the caption of "Federal Nationale," urges the citizens of Paris to prove for themselves and their descendants the value of liberty, and they will surely assist in founding a universal republic.

Paris grows sadder in appearance daily. One hundred and sixty thousand people have left the city in the past ten days.

The chaplains have been ordered to cease the performance of mass in the prisons.

The insurance offices have been searched by order of the Commune for jewels and money deposited by the Empress Eugenie.

Bismarck's Opinion of the Insurrection—The Reds Simply Rioters.

NEW YORK, March 31.—A London newspaper correspondent has obtained an interview with Bismarck, in which the state of affairs in Paris was discussed. After a courteous reception and some preliminary conversation, during which the Prince expressed his appreciation of the good sense and consistency displayed by the people and the Government of the United States during the war, he proceeded fully to give his views on the situation and to define the position that Germany takes in the domestic difficulties of France, which was in substance that, he denied that Germany had sent a message to the Reds, declaring she would not interfere, but would maintain friendly relations, and adds, "there is a mistaken idea prevailing in England with regard to the position of Germany towards the rioters in Paris. In consequence of the wrong translation of the letter of General Schlotein, the Journal Officiel said that so long as the Germans were not interfered with their passive attitude would be observed. This was made to read "friendly attitude," a very different thing. There have only been three telegrams sent from Germany relating to the riots, and two of them were simply of a military character. One of these, my own, addressed to Favre, was also misinterpreted. In short, Germany will never interfere with the internal affairs of France, but all parties must respect and observe the peace stipulations to the letter, and if in order to do this legitimately the French Government appeals for aid, Germany will probably extend it to a certain degree. Germany will also aid the government of France to enforce law and order by relaxing the strict regulations of the peace preliminaries; further than this Germany will be passive. Germany will afford facilities for the concentrating of the government troops, and if necessary give the assistance in suppressing the Commune in Paris. He declares the regular government is the only one competent to assure Germany of the payment of the promised indemnity, and hence he means to maintain it. He recognizes the Reds as simply rioters, and says that so soon as the insurgents transgress the terms of the conventions concluded with the legitimate government of France, the Germans will treat them as rioters, and disperse them by force of arms; but so long as they do not transgress these stipulations they will be let alone.

PARIS.

What the Siege Cost the Inhabitants—Revelations of the Mont de Piete.

Writing from Paris, on March 12th, the London Times' correspondent says: "The following affiche was posted yesterday upon the walls of Paris: 'Don Patriotique de l'Angleterre a la France. Remise gratuite des outils engages pendant la duree de la guerre.' The admirable idea of furnishing the poor people of Paris, who in the days of their extremity had been obliged to pawn the means of earning their livelihood, with the tools which are now stacked in the Mont de Piete, is due to Mr. Marshall, one of the committee for the distribution of the English charitable fund, and possesses this special advantage—that it will not merely relieve the material condition of thousands of families, but produce a political effect of the utmost importance, and deprive the working class of the complaint which the Radical prints have already suggested that they should make against the operation of the rules by which the Mont de Piete is regulated. The fact that the State is the universal pawnbroker in France, that a certain amount of red tape is incidental to an establishment of such gigantic proportions, and that unforeseen exigencies have arisen in consequence of the siege, for which its rules had not provided, has given a certain color to these complaints. At the same time, as the Mont de Piete is conducted entirely on capital borrowed from other State institutions, and as the financial embarrassment under which Paris is suffering extends everywhere, there are pecuniary reasons why it is very difficult now for the Government to relax its rules, and afford special privileges and facilities to those who have pawned their goods, without running the risk of absolute insolvency. During the siege no one was allowed to borrow more than fifty francs on any article, no matter what its value might be. In spite of this, the pressure for money was so great that the store-rooms of the Mont de Piete became encumbered with articles, which 100,000 persons of all classes brought and pledged. I made a most interesting inspection of these immense storehouses of private property a few days ago, and walked through labyrinths of stored jewelry, each little box colored and numbered according to its year, all the even numbers indicating one year, and the odd numbers another. Here were no fewer than 100,000 watches and 25,000 clocks. There were diamond necklaces and bracelets of fabulous values, which had lain for many years, and which were pledged anew every year, that had glittered, nevertheless, on the arms and necks of their owners at every Imperial ball and on every State occasion, when they were hired from the Imperial pawn broker for the night. Here, too, were evidences of the more real distress to which persons of rank had been reduced—one piece of lace after the other, the last cashmere shawl, or a pocket handkerchief embroidered with a coronet, of such fine material that it was still possible to raise three francs, the lowest figure allowed upon it; gentlemen's gold-headed canes, even ordinary riding whips, and no fewer than 2,000 opera glasses. Here was an umbrella, the pawn-ticket of which had been renewed every year since 1812, and a silk dress the owner of which for the last twenty-eight years had been unable to redeem it, but had regularly raised the portion of annual income which it represented. Here were unwritten romances staring at us from the eyes of pawned pictures, and dreadful family secrets locked up in jewelry boxes. This quarter of the establishment was what might be called the Faubourg St. Germain of the Mont de Piete. When we went into the Belleville quarters the objects were very different. No fewer than 2,300 poor wretches had pawned their mattresses, and starving seamstresses had pawned 1,500 pairs of scissors. Spades, shovels, teapots without end. How many necessaries to existence were stored away in these cruel galleries! How different the story they told from those of the fashionable depositories below! Not much of the romantic or the mysterious here; very little left to the imagination; the gaunt secret frowning on us from every loaded shelf—starvation! And so the bright idea struck my companion that a very practical disposition of British charity might be made which would deprive the owners of these tools of the excuse for idleness that the implements of their trades were in pawn, and enable those who were industrious and deserving to earn their own bread, while it would afford a means of discovering the idle and following the conduct of those who might try to take advantage of the privilege only in order to abuse it. This view was thoroughly acquiesced in by Col. Stuart Wortley and Mr. Moore, who could not have brought their laborious duties to a more desirable conclusion than by inaugurating this scheme.

LIEUT. GEORGE M. WHEELER, of the United States Engineer Corps, has received instructions to make a thorough exploration of the northern part of Arizona Territory and the southern part of Nevada. He will have a suitable escort from the command of the military division of the Pacific, and will leave Washington in a few days for San Francisco to make arrangements for the expedition. It is the general belief that this unexplored territory is rich in minerals, and the Western Members of Congress have long been urging the exploration of these parts of Arizona and Nevada with the view of ascertaining what the country is really worth. The report of Lieut. Wheeler, therefore, is looked for with more than ordinary interest by those having in view our increase of immigration toward the Pacific slope.

Wonderful Success of the Burdett.

There seems to be no exaggeration in the wonderful things attributed to the Burdett Organ, if we are to judge from the number sold by Kleber & Bro. Some half a dozen of them have been disposed of since Thursday. The tone of the Burdett Organ is so touching and pathetic that even strong men have been known to shed tears at the performance thereon of some simple home melody. The Burdett furnishes the music for the heart—the true music, and no one has ever heard that instrument without feeling a strong desire to become the possessor of one of them. A refined and musical lady remarked that the "Burdett was the only instrument of its kind which deserved the name of 'Organ'—all other makes sounding in her ears like overgrown Accordeons." Any one interested in seeing this beautiful instrument will find them at the music store of H. Kleber & Bro., opposite the First National Bank. †

SECOND EDITION.

THE FIRST DAY'S WORK.

Action on the Granting of Licenses Begun.

The Meeting of the Board of Commissioners.

Thirty Remonstrances Presented.

TWENTY LICENSES REFUSED.

Next Wednesday Appointed for the Hearing of Cases in Which There Are Remonstrances—The Examination of the Applicants—How Conducted—The Facts Disclosed—Interesting Report of the Proceedings Yesterday.

The License Board met yesterday morning at ten o'clock, in the room formerly occupied by the County Controller, and proceeded to hear the applications for license to sell liquors, as published in the first list. There was a large attendance, and much interest was manifested. The applicants, and their counsel and friends, were quite numerous. The citizens, engaged in the movement to resist the granting of licenses to all persons not legally entitled to receive them, were represented by Messrs. Joseph Dilworth, Thomas H. Rabe, Thomas K. Cree, H. R. Porter, Barclay Preston, B. F. Jennings, Robert Carr, Frank Woods, Samuel Richardson, and numerous others.

The Commissioners, Messrs. Neely, McGee and Scott, were all present, with the Clerk, Col. Joseph Browne.

W. B. Negley, D. D. Bruce, and W. K. Jennings appeared as counsel for the citizens.

MR. NEGLEY'S DIGEST OF THE LICENSE LAWS.

Mr. Negley stated that he represented citizens of the county who wished simply to have the license laws enforced. There were some provisions of these laws which were not generally understood, but they were nevertheless binding. Among these provisions was one requiring the Board annually, before the first of April, to apportion among the wards, boroughs and townships of the county, the hotels, inns, taverns and eating houses. This had never been done, but in his judgment it was necessary, otherwise all the licenses granted in disregard of this provision would be void.

Mr. Neely—The Court of Quarter Sessions never made any apportionment, and we have followed their precedent.

Mr. Negley—It is now too late for the Board to make this apportionment for this year, but we hold it essential, and give the Board notice that we intend to take advantage of it. Then, again, the law requires the Clerk to produce before the Board the applications filed, with proof that the application has been made within the legal time. Another section allows an appeal within five days, from any apportionment, classification or grant of license to the Quarter Sessions, under certain conditions set forth. These, and many other terms of the law, are but imperfectly understood, and his purpose was to make them as clear as possible; and, where there was a diversity of interpretations, to have the mooted points settled by the Courts. He had prepared the following digest of the several acts, which he held to be still in force, and under which the citizens would conduct their opposition to the indiscriminate granting of licenses:

SEC. 13. No license to be granted to the owners or managers of any theater or circus, to sell within the same any vinous or spirituous liquors—nor shall a house be licensed as a tavern which has a passage communication with a theater.

ACT 11TH MARCH, 1834.

SEC. 15. "

SEC. 17. Every innkeeper shall keep good entertainment for man and horse, under penalty of five dollars for every case of neglect.

SEC. 18. Any innkeeper, tavernkeeper or other retailer of wine, spirituous or other strong drink, who shall incite, promote or encourage any games of address, hazard, cock-fighting, bullet playing or horse racing at which any money, &c., shall be betted, &c., or shall furnish any strong drink, &c., to any persons assembled or attending such game, &c., shall forfeit and pay, &c.

SEC. 19. And if any person shall permit and allow any kind of games, &c., betting, &c., either at cards, bowls, dice, billiards, shuffle-boards or any game or device in any other manner to be practiced, shall forfeit, &c., &c.

SEC. 20. Tavern keeper or other licensed retailer of wine or other liquors who shall offend as aforesaid, the license such person shall, upon his conviction thereof, become void, and such offender shall be incapable of being again licensed in like manner for one year thereafter; and upon such second conviction, such person shall, in addition to the penalty aforesaid, be forever incapable of being a public house keeper or retailer, as aforesaid, within this Commonwealth.

SEC. 27. If any inn or tavern keeper shall be convicted of any offense not mentioned in this act, or shall knowingly suffer drunkenness, riot or other disorderly conduct in his house, or shall disobey any of the provisions of this act, it shall be lawful for the court which granted the license, in their discretion, to revoke the same.

ACT OF 31ST MARCH, 1856.

SEC. 9. Applicants in city must have for exclusive use of travelers, at least four bed rooms and eight beds; in other parts of the county they must have two rooms and four beds, exclusively for the public.

SEC. 12. Applicant to file his petition with the clerk three weeks before presenting same to Board of Licenses, which shall be published six times in two newspapers of the city or county, in a list containing the names of all applicants, their respective residences and kind of license. The first publication shall be at least ten secular days before the time fixed for hearing.

SEC. 17. Annually before the 1st of April the Board shall give due notice by advertisement, in at least two newspapers, of the time and place of meeting—to apportion among wards, townships and boroughs within the county the hotels, inns, taverns and eating houses—and to receive evidence for and against said application, and to grant licenses, for which purposes they shall inquire into the moral character and sobriety of the applicant, and ascertain the locality, commodiousness and extent of the houses and property proposed to be occupied for the purpose mentioned in the petition, and whether the same be required for the accommodation of the public. The clerk shall produce before the Board the applications filed, with proof of publication of notice, and shall, as a majority of said Board shall determine, mark on said application "granted" or "refused;" and the said Board shall at the same time decide on the sufficiency of the sureties to bond. The said Board shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations.

SEC. 18. Licenses to issue five days after being granted, unless an appeal be taken from the decision of the Board, on the apportionment, classification or petition.

SEC. 19. Appeals may be taken to the Court of Quarter Sessions.

ACT 20TH APRIL, 1858.

SEC. 6.—Licenses to be to citizens of the United States, of temperate habits and good moral character. Provided, nothing herein contained shall prohibit the commissioners from hearing other evidence than that presented by the applicant for license. And the commissioners shall grant or refuse a license in accordance with the evidence.

ACT 15TH APRIL, 1859.

SEC. 1.—Lawful for remonstrances to be presented against applicants and refuse license whenever they are of opinion such tavern is not necessary for the accommodation of the public and the entertainment of strangers and travelers.

ACT 21ST MARCH, 1867.

SEC. 2. All applicants shall in March or April in each year, appear before the Clerk of the Court of Quarter Sessions of Allegheny county and make an oath or affirmation of the amount of their respective sales of liquors and all other refreshments at their bar, and such clerk shall file said affidavits in his office.

SEC. 6. No person shall sell, give away or dispose of any strong or spirituous liquors, wine, ale or beer, or any intoxicating drinks to any apprentice or a minor without consent of master, mistress, father, mother or guardian.

SEC. 7. No person shall sell or dispose of, nor suffer an employee to sell, give away or dispose of, any strong or spirituous liquors, &c., to any habitual drunkard, or to any intoxicated person, under penalty of forfeiture of license.

SEC. 9. All licensed persons shall close or shut up their bar or place of sale at 12 every night, and on Sundays shall not open them at all.

SEC. 13. All general laws, not inconsistent, are declared to be in full force.

SEC. 15. To hear petitions or remonstrances for or against the application, and to refuse the same whenever such hotel, &c., is not necessary for the accommodation of the public, and entertainment of strangers and travelers.

AN OBJECTION TO MR. NEGLEY PROCEEDING.

John W. Taylor, Esq., here interrupted Mr. Negley, by propounding a question regarding who upon the list he represented. He believed he was safe in saying that he expressed the opinion of the majority of those representing before the court, applicants mentioned in the list, by asserting that Mr. Negley was entirely out of place, not having stated for whom he appeared. It was well known to all the members of the bar that they appeared in the License Court only through the courtesy of the Commissioners, and he urged upon those officials that even courtesy would not permit Mr. Negley continuing on unless he represented some one in particular. Mr. Taylor also remarked that Mr. Negley was expounding the law to the Commissioners, men who were supposed to understand their business thoroughly, and hence believed this to be another reason why he should be stopped. He said the Commissioners were vested with the authority of the Court of Quarter Sessions in regard to the granting of licenses. He hoped that the Board would rule Mr. Negley out, if it was his purpose to remonstrate against the list wholesale.

Commissioner Neely—We will hear Mr. Negley through.

MR. TAYLOR DON'T WANT TO BE BADGERED AND HUMBUGGED.

Mr. Taylor—It is just as well to say, then, that the few citizens here to-day might employ an attorney to come here and represent them and remonstrate by the wholesale against the granting of licenses to any one on these lists. This is not fair. Here are a respectable majority of the attorneys, and I, for one, do not think it is right that we should be badgered, humbugged and annoyed in this manner, unless we are satisfied they come here to represent some particular person on the list. I am here, not as the champion of the liquor men, but as an honest member of bar, and I will say I wish to be treated fairly. If there are special remonstrances from the districts in which applicants for license reside, they can be presented here; otherwise they cannot. And further, the Court and Commissioners have decided time and again that the remonstrance must be presented with the petition.

Mr. Negley—If the gentleman will allow me, I will show him more respect than he has displayed towards me. A moment more and I will be through.

The gentleman then referred to the act in relation to appeals and concluded by offering the following paper:

MOTION TO DISMISS ALL THE APPLICATIONS.

Before the Commissioners of Allegheny County:

In the matter of the applications for license to keep taverns, to sell liquors with other goods, advertised to be heard this 31st day of March, 1871, before said Commissioners as a Board of License.

And now, March 31, 1871, W. B. Negley and W. K. Jennings, counsel for remonstrants in several cases, move that all said applications to be heard to-day, be dismissed because the county has not been districted by said Board as required by law.

Mr. C. S. Ammond—I think the Commissioners are here for the purpose of trying these cases, and if Mr. Negley and Mr. Jennings are the attorneys of the Board, I want to know it.

Mr. Taylor—Are we to understand from Mr. Jennings that the remonstrances which they propose to offer are general, or are they gotten up in the district from which application is made.

Commissioner Neely—They must come from the district where the applicant resides. None other will be received.

THE APPORTIONMENT TO BE MADE FROM TIME TO TIME.

Mr. Coyle—In regard to the motion of the gentleman for the dismissal of the applications because of the failure of the Commissioners to make an apportionment, I will state that the act from which he draws the motion provides that said apportionment shall be made from time to time—not to-day. Besides, they had apportioned the county.

Commissioner Neely—The court, of which we have full power, never made any apportionment, and I don't know that we are required to.

Mr. Taylor—Whenever twelve citizens ask for it, it will be granted.

REMARKS OF MR. BRUCE IN FAVOR OF THE MOTION.

Mr. D. D. Bruce—Appeals may be made to the court below, on any of the decisions of the Commissioners regarding licenses. The objection we make is that no apportionment has been made. It is within the power of the Commissioners to make distribution of the taverns of this county, and whether it is the time for such distribution or not, it is for you to say. We think that the necessity arises for the making of this apportionment. Therefore it is that we propose to file this objection, and if we are not sustained, why we will carry the case into court and inquire into its merits, because you have no authority or right to issue these licenses. We ask you, then, if you won't pass upon this motion now, that you take advise with your counsel and decide hereafter.

THE MOTION OVERRULED.

Commissioner Neely—Mr. Bruce, we will have to decide against you. Mr. Clerk call for the first cases.

THE CALL OF THE CASES—FROM THE COUNTRY DISTRICTS.

George W. Warren, tavern keeper on the Perrysville road, Marshall township, was the first called. He had twelve rooms and eight beds for strangers; is known to be a moral man, and no remonstrance, so the witness said, could be got against his license. Neither could any liquor be obtained at his house on Sunday. Granted.

Geo. W. Boyd, of Bridgeville, on the old Washington road, has twelve rooms and twelve beds, and has kept the house for thirteen years. Witnesses deposed to the absolute necessity of the house. Granted.

Elizabeth Farmerie, hotel keeper for thirty years on the Butler plank road, has twenty-eight beds, seventeen rooms and good stabling for any number of horses.

Mr. Neely—I presume there is no objections to this house.

Mr. Bonce—I would remark that we will object to the witness deciding upon the necessity for the taverns. That matter rests altogether with the Board.

Mr. Neely—That is true, but we desire information to make up our judgment.

The Attorney for Mrs. Farmerie—The license of Mrs. F. expires to-day and I desire the Commissioners to grant the new license immediately. Granted.

William Chadwick, of Camden, two miles above McKeesport, in Mifflin township, has the remarkable number of twenty-two rooms, and the required eight beds, with stabling for twelve horses. The witness stated that Chadwick was a man of good moral character and that "he had never seen him worse than at present." He made no further explanation of the latter clause of the last sentence, hence we are at a loss to know what he meant. Granted.

ILLEGAL PETITIONS.

Philip Nusser, of Spring Hill, on the Pennsylvania Railroad, in North Versailles township, informed the Commissioners, through the aid of Mr. Reardon, that he had eight rooms, seven beds and stabling for five horses, and that he used two rooms himself. The witness said the house was a necessity.

Mr. Reardon—Are you licensed now or not?

Mr. Bruce—We object. When did you take out your petition in this case?

Mr. Reardon—You are wrong about this—

Mr. Negley—Wait until you know what we desire to introduce. The law requires the affidavit to the petition to be sworn to at the time of its filing. The affidavit in this case was sworn to to-day, and the petition filed on February 22d. The petition is not a legal one because of the failure to administer the oath when the petition was filed.

The Clerk—The money was not paid when the petition was filed, and we never swear them until the same is paid.

ANOTHER ATTORNEY OBJECTS TO BADGERING.

Mr. Reardon—I object to this style of badgering one around, unless the gentlemen on the other side give me an opportunity to explain. The petition itself will show that it was filed February 22d.

COMMISSIONER NEELY WONT BE BADGERED.

Commissioner Neely—We have no time to argue the question here. Proceed gentlemen.

Mr. Negley—I ask that the Clerk be sworn.

Mr. Reardon—I was present when the petition was filed, and am willing to be sworn.

There appearing to be two petitions Mr. Negley asked which the Board was considering.

The Clerk—Both.

Mr. Bruce—Then we object.

The application was held under advisement.

MR. NEGLEY WANTS SOME SYSTEM ADOPTED.

Jacob Trax, next called also had in two applications.

Mr. Negley—The law requires that these applications be published three weeks. One of them has not been published at all. Now, if you are going to follow up the examination in this way we hope there will be some sistem about it.

Mr. Taylor—If you want to get up a fight go outside and take hold of some of your clients.

Mr. Negley—The petition before us is not a petition in accordance with law; and if you propose continuing business in this way we want to know it. This latter application is filed March 29,—that was Thursday and how could it possibly have been published three weeks?

Mr. Neely—Is there a remonstrance?

Mr. Negley—Yes sir, I remonstrate.

Mr. Rearden—Swear him then.

Mr. Negley—Well, I will swear that that is not a legal application.

Mr. Neely—The objection is overruled. If there was a remonstrance we would drop it like a hot cake.

Trax then stated that he had a house on the Zelienople plank road, containing eight beds, and that he had stabling for forty-eight horses; and further, that he had kept the hotel for thirty days. The matter was held under advisement.

THE APPLICANTS IN THE CITY.

Edward McDermott, of the First ward, was then called.

Mr. Negley—We object to that petition because it is not legal, not being sworn to. We will also file a remonstrance signed by about forty persons doing business and living in said ward, against the granting of said license.

THE PETITION SWORN TO.

The Clerk here swore McDermott to the truth of the facts set forth in the petition, which, according to the previous ruling of the Commissioners, overcame the objection of Mr. Negley.

McDermott, being sworn, testified that he has been licensed for five years, and he has eleven rooms and eleven beds. The witness knew him to be an honest, sober man. The house is a two story one, and is kept for the accommodation of the public, the witness being cognizant of sixteen stopping there in one night.

CROSS EXAMINED.

Witness to Mr. Bruce: Keep tavern myself; I signed McDermott's petition; have been through his house; went through his house this morning; was there before, when his family was sick; he has six or seven of a family; they occupy three bed rooms and the rest are for the accommodation of the public; know that men stop there for accommodations.

FOUR TAVERNS IN A ROW OF FIVE.

Witness to Mr. Jennings—There are six or seven taverns in the immediate neighborhood; I'm blamed if I know how many there are in the row of five buildings mentioned, but think there are four.

WHAT LIEUT. CAMPBELL KNOWS ABOUT THE HOUSE.

Lieut. David Campbell, of the Mayor's Police, to Mr. Negley—Know this house; sometimes there are drunken parties there until twelve o'clock at night; have not been in the house lately. Did not sign the remonstrance. There are five houses in the row in which McDermott is, and four are taverns. There are nine in a space of about three hundred feet. The houses are nearly all of one order. Last year I tried to get a man into a place for the night, at the point, and there was only one place where they consented to take him. McDermott's house is sixteen or eighteen feet front and two stories high.

Witness to Mr. McBride—Don't know whether they accommodate travelers or not.

To Mr. Bruce—Know that tralers or any one can get whisky there. Don't know of the house being kept open on the Sabbath.

Mr. Bruce—We would ask the Court that, in regard to the adjudication of the cases heard, that in case they are not disposed of to-day, that we be advised when they will be adjudicated.

Mr. Neely—We mean to adjourn to some specified time for that purpose.

THE FIRST REMONSTRANCE.

Jacob Frederick was the next applicant, to whose petition Mr. Jennings filed a remonstrance.

MR. COHEN OBJECTS IN A FIERCE SPEECH UPON THE TEMPERANCE MEN.

Mr. Cohen raised an objection to the filing of this remonstrance. He said the Court had decided that a remonstrance must accompany the petition, and be filed together and the Commissioners would have to adopt the same rules. The applicant had a right to this in order that he might the better prepare his case. It was therefore unjust at this stage of the examination that the remonstrance should be sprung upon his client, who is thus left without the means of fortifying himself. Further, it is signed, not by men living in the ward, but by those who know nothing of the house, but come here as citizens to remonstrate against all the applicants for license. The Court has been degraded in this examination. The Court certainly knows something. It is a presumption of law that you know the law you are expected to execute, and with all due respect to the gentlemen representing the citizens here, I will say I object to their cross-examining any of my witnesses. There is no provision in the law permitting attorneys to come here, and it is by mere matter of courtesy that their presence is allowed. I also assert that no set of men have a right to establish themselves into a

STAR CHAMBER

To break down not only the polical but the social relations of the county. They intend opposing not only the granting of this license, but all others in Allegheny county. I ask this Court here now, and the Court below will confirm it, to say whether the remonstrance is admissable. It is an insult to your judgment to offer it. I ask you to decide first that no attorney has the right to cross-examine my witnesses, and secondly that no remonstrance can be admitted unless filed with the petition.

MR. BRUCE'S REJOINDER.

Mr. Bruce—How does the gentleman come here, then? I am employed here to-day and paid money by certain people of this county to carry out the laws made by our Legislature—the same laws which gives the men of this community the right to ask you to grant them licenses to sell liquors. I defy him, therefore, to prevent me cross-examining his witnesses. The Court of Quarter Sessions has the power to hear appeals in these cases, and did not the Court reverse the action of the Commissioners when the knowledge of the law was brought to their attention? We claim the right to examine into all cases where remonstrances are presented.

VICTORY FOR THE TEMPERANCE MEN.

Mr. Neely—The remonstrances will be received and counsel shall have the right to cross-examine the witnesses.

Mr. Cohen—(to Mr. Bruce) it is not right to come come and pull out of your pocket a remonstrance of which we have received no previous notice.

Mr. Bruce—We will live up to any rules the Commissioners make.

Mr. Cohen—Well, I rather think you will. Mr. Cohen intimated that the matter would likely be carried to the Supreme Court.

DAY APPOINTED FOR HEARING THE CASES WHERE REMONSTRANCES ARE PRESENTND.

Mr. Neeley—Gentlemen, we have concluded to make an order that in all cases where remonstrances are presented, the same shall come up for a hearing on next Wednesday morning.

Mr. Cohen desired a further order regarding the time wherein remonstrances may be presented.

Mr. Taylor suggested an amendment to the order when the Commissioners informed him that the order had been made.

THE HEARINGS PROCEED.

Andrew Stang was then called, and Mr. Cohen being answered that there was no remonstrance, said: "Why, you have missed him." Mr. Stang said he kept the Farmers Inn, corner of Fourth avenue and Ferry street, and that he had sixteen rooms and twenty-one beds. Granted.

Adam Schweinhardt, Penn street, Ninth ward, had fourteen rooms and fourteen beds, and had been licensed for several years. Granted.

THOSE WHOSE LICENSES EXPIRE TO-DAY MUST CLOSE UP.

Mr. Johnson—I desire to ask the Board what is to be done in cases where the licenses expire to-day?

Mr. Neely—All such will have to close up or run the risk.

Patrick Ingoldsby had kept tavern at Grant street and Third avenue for twenty years, and furnished twelve rooms and eleven beds for the accommodation of the public. Granted.

David McClelland, proprietor of the Eagle hotel, on Liberty street, containing sixty rooms, was next heard. Granted.

F. Evert and H. W. Beaumont, other goods, were heard and licenses granted.

F. X. Seidle, beer saloon keeper, corner Strawberry alley and Smithfield street, also had a hearing and a license granted.

Jacob Schild, of Sharpsburg, has a house containing twenty rooms and fourteen beds. No remonstrance. Granted.

P. Kolbecker, No. 165 Smithfield street, has twelve rooms in his house and sufficient beds to accommodate boarders and travelers. Granted.

Mr. Nicholas Young, keeper of a wine store on Smithfield street, was the next case. His particular recommendation, as well as that of a number of others, was the fact of his having been in the business fifteen years. Granted.

Mr. Cohen—Mr. Young's house is doubtless well known to the Commissioners.

John Kessler wanted a beer saloon license, his place of business being on Smithfield street. He has all the accommodations required for man and beast. Granted.

Fogerty & Clark, wholesale dealers, were next heard, and the papers taken charge of by the Board. License afterwards granted.

Samuel Turner, keeper of a hotel No. 182 Penn street, near St. Clair, for the accommodation of the country people, was then heard, and a license granted. He has twenty beds, and has had a license for eight years.

CONVICTED OF BREAKING THE LAW—LICENSE REFUSED ON THIS GROUND.

The next applicant was Roger Sweeney, who after being sworn, was about being interrogated, when Mr. Negley said:

GENTLEMEN OF THE BOARD—We are prepared to show by the records of Mayor Brush that this man was fined for breaking the law within the year.

Mr. Neely—If such be true then the application falls to the ground, and Mr. Sweeney cannot get license for a year.

Mr. Coyle—Well sirs, there is a difference of opinion upon that point. I think that should be put along with those cases to come up next Wednesday.

Mr. Neely—Perhaps it is better to do so. Mr. Sweeney's case will go over until Wednesday next.

REFUSED FOR WANT OF SUFFICIENT BED ROOM—A MUDDLED APPLICANT.

Mr. Henry McMillen, a tavern keeper on Irwin street was the next respondent to the call of the Clerk. He had seven rooms in all, and four bed rooms and was fully prepared to accommodate the public.

Witness to Mr. Negley—Have four bed rooms in all. My family occupies two rooms.

Mr. Negley—This case does not come under the law, by his own showing.

Mr. Neely—You cannot get tavern license. It is refused for want of sufficient bed room.

A. Kleinordlinger, wholsale dealer, was next heard. Case held over.

GENERAL REMONSTRANCE FROM M'KEESPORT.

Robert M. Elwood, of McKeesport, was then called.

Mr. Jennings here presented the following remonstrance:

To the License Board of Allegheny county:

We, the undersigned citizens of the borough of McKeesport, respectfully remonstrate against the granting of licenses to sell liquors to the following parties: W. Connelly, D. Lindsay, T. Broadhead, — Seater, Joseph Arnfield, R. Eichenlaub, Christ. Becker, — Ellwood, Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Keihl, for the following reasons: Disorderly houses; and the public necessities do not require them, there being now twenty-five places at which intoxicating drink is sold, to a population of twenty-five hundred.

[Signed by eighty-nine citizens.]

Mr. Neely—This is a general remonstrance. We cannot receive it. It must be a special remonstrance.

Mr. Negley—We desire to file it anyhow and let it come up on Wednesday.

Henry Kratz, of Fifth avenue, has had license for eight years. He has eleven rooms and ten beds. Granted.

Frank Goodwin, applicant for license on "Other Goods" was next heard. Granted.

ARE BOARDERS TRAVELERS.

William Hanlin, of 451 Penn street, Ninth ward, was the next. He had eleven beds, ten of which were for the accommodation of the public. At the present time he had fourteen or sixteen boarders.

Mr. Negley—On his own showing he does not come under the law. Boarders are not travelers and his boarders use all his rooms, which he swears are for the accommodation of the traveling public.

Mr. Neely—You had better withdraw that objection. I think we will pass the case. Granted.

Lena Disher, Ninth ward, Pittsburgh, has nine rooms and twelve beds. Granted.

Robert Woods, 411 Penn street, has eleven rooms and 12 beds. Granted.

S. Slocum, Ninth ward, has thirty rooms and thirty-five beds. Granted.

Dan Voltz, Ninth ward, has thirteen rooms and fifteen beds. Granted.

THINGS GET MIXED—ANOTHER APPLICATION REFUSED.

John Gallaffher, above Twelfth street, on Penn, has eight rooms and ten beds.

A TAVERN TWELVE FEET FRONT.

Gallagher to Mr. Negley.—It is a two story house; don't know how much of a front I have; don't know whether I have more than twelve feet; the house is double, and altogether has thirty-three feet front; have seven rooms; one more I am going to rent, which will make the eight; have ten rooms in all; have only four bed rooms; one I use myself; I can turn the other rooms into bed rooms if I need them.

Mr. Negley—How many rooms have you in which beds are up? A—four.

Q—One you use yourself? A—Yes, sir; I have the beds though and can put them up.

Mr. Neeley—The case falls to the ground. We cannot go back of the law.

Mr. Keenan—We withdraw the application.

Mr. Negley—You cannot do that; it has been refused.

Mr. Keenan—We will do it anyhow.

ANOTHER REFUSAL.

Caroline Rochter, the next applicant wanted license to sell at No. 472 Penn street, but during the examination it appeared she had not yet moved into the house.

Mr. Negley—No one can secure a license until they get into the house.

Mr. Neely—That is so; the license is refused.

James Wiggins, of 444 Penn street, has eight beds for the accomodation of the public. His witness thought this tavern as much of a necessity as any other tavern in the city. Granted.

Nicholas B. Bean, of the Twelfth ward, has eleven beds and good accommodations for the public. Granted.

John Froeich's application to sell other goods was next heard. Granted.

John Dirscall, of the Tenth ward (No. 650 Penn street) has eleven rooms and nine beds. Granted.

AN APPLICANT SEATS HIMSELF.

Roland Smith, 646 Penn street, has eight rooms and eight beds, two of which he said were occupied by his family.

Mr. Negley—He would have only six rooms then for the accommodation of the public.

Mr. Neeley—This application also falls to the ground. We can grant you no tavern license.

IF AT FIRST YOU DON'T SUCCEED TRY AGAIN.

Terrence McManus, of 699 Penn street, has five bed rooms and nine beds up.

Applicant to Mr. Negley—Have a family of five small children, one room is occupied by myself and one by my children.

Mr. Neely—You will have to try it over again. Your application is refused.

Martin Schaffer, No. 90 Twelfth street, Birmingham, has eleven rooms, ten beds, and eight for the accommodation of the public. Granted.

David Rich, Twelfth ward, Pittsburgh, corner of Penn and Twenty-ninth streets, has ten rooms and ten beds, and has presided over the destinies of the same for six years. Granted.

The Board then took a short recess.

Afternoon Session.

The Board met at half-past one o'clock, and resumed business.

Charles Gilinger, Birmingham; house located on Washington street; has seven rooms and seven beds, five of which are for the public. Witness testified that the house was necessary. Granted.

Christ. Stang, Birmingham; has ten rooms and six beds; house necessary. Granted.

Christ. Simons, No. 176 Smithfield street; house licensed twenty years; ten rooms and eight beds. Witness testified applicant was sober, and house necessary. Mr. Negley asked whether an eating house would not suit just as well as a tavern here, and the witness replied he supposed it would if no one wanted to drink anything stronger than ale!

AN UNEXPECTED DISCOVERY.

J. P. Swaney, Penn street, Twelfth ward, had nine rooms and eleven beds, nine of which were for the public.

Mr. Negley—How long have you been in possession of the house?

Swavey—I am keeping bar for another man, but take possession to-morrow.

Negley—Then you had no house when you filed your application?

Swavey—I had this house engaged and was keeping bar for the other man until his time was out.

Negley—Then you have not complied with the law and are not entitled to license.

The Board decided that a new application was necessary.

George Smith, Fourth ward Allegheny, has eleven rooms and eight beds for strangers. Granted.

George C. Nuttmeyer, Baldwin township, has six rooms and four or five beds, on a public road, but not many travelers stop there. Could accommodate a dozen. Granted.

CAME WITHIN ONE OF IT.

Paul Hast, Third ward, Allegheny, has seven rooms, four of which are for the public. On cross-examination Mr. Negley ascertained that the petitioner had one of the four rooms for the use of his barkeeper, and the application was refused.

John S. Kohne, corner of First and Middle streets, Allegheny, has ten rooms and ten beds. Tavern necessary. Granted.

Rudolph Rotsing, corner Madison avenue and Third street, Allegheny, had just moved into the house and applied for license to sell with other goods. Granted.

F. Kockendoffer, Ohio street, Allegheny, to sell with other goods. Granted.

Dennis Keller, Fourth ward, Allegheny, to sell with other goods. Granted.

Patrick McGrady, Second ward, Allegheny. Twenty rooms, twenty-five beds. House kept as a tavern for sixteen years. Granted.

Thomas Jacobs, Third ward, Allegheny. Objected to as being an improper house, but witnesses not here. Ruled out, not having had possession till yesterday.

John Emmell, Diamond, Allegheny, 23 rooms, 50 beds. Granted.

Gottlieb Younker, Third ward, Allegheny; seven rooms and eleven beds; house kept two years. Held over till Wednesday, as there was doubt as to number of rooms.

Joseph Webber, Fourth ward; fourteen rooms, sixteen beds; house kept fourteen years. Granted.

Wm. Kepfort, No. 6 Diamond, Allegheny; nine rooms and eight beds; only six beds for strangers. Refused.

Wm. Hoffman, Fourth ward, Allegheny; fourteen rooms, eighteen beds. Granted.

Henry Shear, Fourth ward, Allegheny, seven rooms and twelve beds. Granted.

REFUSED ON OWN ADMISSIONS.

Henry Kaser, Ohio street, Allegheny, eight rooms and ten beds; six beds for strangers. Refused on his own admission of insufficient accommodations.

Gottleib Dramble, Fifth ward, Allegheny; eight rooms and nine beds; six rooms for strangers. Refused for want of sufficient accommodations on his own admission.

Christian Yenkel, Fifth ward, Allegheny; eight rooms and ten beds; eight beds for travelers. Admitted he had only three bed rooms for travelers. Refused.

Dreitch & Thomas, Sixth ward, Allegheny. Granted.

Wm. Isenses, Twelfth ward, Pittsburgh; seven rooms, eight beds; five beds for strangers. Refused.

Patrick O'Connor, Twelfth ward; to sell with other goods; not in possession; refused.

SUBJECT TO SPREES.

Matthias Ochner, Twelfth ward; to sell with other goods.

A police officer was called and testified that the neighbors complained of Ochner being subject to sprees, and compelling his family to flee from the house. License refused.

NOT MANY TRAVELERS.

Lucas Zimmer, Fifteenth ward, (1251 Penn street,) has eight rooms and eight beds for strangers.

Mr. Negley—This house is located where there are a great many other taverns, and its necessity is questionable.

Mr. Neely—He has complied with the law as to accommodations.

Mr. Negley—How many strangers do you entertain? What amount of money have you made from travelers last year?

Applicant—Not many travelers come for lodging, but I suppose I made fifty dollars last year off them!

Mr. Negley—Does the Board think this house necessary? Only fifty dollars from travelers in a whole year, and plenty of other houses all round there!

Applicant—I can't keep it if the travelers don't come!

The Board granted the license.

Charles Woodhouse, Fourteenth ward; eating house; granted.

HELD OVER.

Daniel McCafferty, Fifth ward, Pittsburgh; ten rooms and eleven beds; nine beds for strangers. Admitted he had only two rooms exclusively for strangers and travelers.

Mr. Negley claimed that this applicant did not come within the law.

Mr. Grady was called and testified that he was a police officer, and had heard it charged that McCafferty sold liquor on Sunday.

The application was held over.

John Shaler, Ross township; has eighteen rooms and fourteen beds. Granted.

SHORT OF ACCOMMODATIONS.

Thomas Kingston, Fifth ward, Pittsburgh; ten rooms and nine beds; two beds used by himself and servant. Refused for want of sufficient accommodations.

C. Walters, Third ward, Pittsburgh; nine rooms and eight beds; two beds occupied by his one family. Refused for want of sufficient beds.

Thomas Keilhacker, Fifteenth ward; eight rooms and ten beds; only five beds for public. Refused for want of proper accommodations.

Jacob Shuck, Butler street, Lawrenceville; six rooms and six beds. Refused for want of sufficient accommodations. This applicant innocently remarked that he could put up two more beds if necessary.

Michael Sempert, Fifteenth ward, with other goods. Granted.

George Shaffer, Birmingham. Granted.

L. Straus, Birmingham, other goods. Granted.

Thomas McDonald, Twelfth ward, eight rooms and ten beds. Granted.

MORE REFUSALS.

John Baker, Twelfth ward, Pittsburgh, eight rooms and eleven beds, eight beds for strangers. Refused for want of sufficient accommodations.

Julius Barth, Third ward, Allegheny. Record of convictions for selling on Sunday and to minors. Application refused.

Christ. Eisenhart, Birmingham; refused for want of sufficient accommodations; only two bed rooms in the house, and one bed for strangers and travelers!

James Nolan, Twelfth ward, Pittsburgh; twenty-two rooms and twenty beds. Granted.

Andrew Wagner, Tenth ward, Pittsburgh; eating house. Petition not filed within legal time. Refused.

Michael Hock, Third ward, Allegheny; nine rooms and ten beds. Granted.

Henry Colwes, 164 Grant street; eight rooms and eight beds; only six beds for strangers. Refused for want of sufficient accommodations.

Jacob Kunz, Fourth ward Allegheny; eight rooms and nine beds; only seven beds for strangers. Refused for want of proper bed room.

SATURDAY, APRIL 1, 1871.

An organization composed of a great number of the most solid business men in New York has been formed to procure the repeal of the Income Tax. The movement will receive support from all the centers of business in the country. If ever a policy was maintained against the will of those whom it affects, it is this.

The question is raised, in case we get San Domingo who will be more likely to come into the United States Senate than Baez, when that country is fully installed as a State, as it soon would be? He is too much of a character to subside after pocketing the larger share of the million and a half dollars in the transaction; and if half the stories are true, he would prove the match of some of our present Senators. If Mr. Sumner does not exaggerate he would not have much to learn to become an expert in American politics. But, do we want him or his country just now?

The Washington Chronicle has had a struggle for existence, but we conclude it is about over. Some "organ" or other undertook to read it out of the party as "an anti-Administration paper, whereupon its editor gave this notice:

> "The Chronicle certainly is not in any special sense an Administration journal. It is an independent newspaper. Its managers advocate, according to their own judgment, Republican principles and sustain the Republican party. We support the Administration heartily in everything which we conscientiously approve, and in nothing which we do not so approve. When we cannot publish a newspaper on this plan in Washington, we will go where we can do it."

This rule lived up to will insure success, and, what is better still, a clear conscience and self-respect.

The License Board met yesterday, and heard a large number of applicants. The counsel employed by the citizens, to see that no person obtained license who did not comply with all the provisions of the law, were present, and were heard whenever they saw fit to object. As a result of their vigilance, no less than twenty applicants were refused license, for not having filed their applications in proper time; for not being in possession of the houses they proposed to keep; for not having proper accommodations, and in one case for having been convicted of violation of the license laws. Remonstrances were filed against some thirty other applicants, whose cases all went over until Wednesday next. The result of yesterday's work shows that the laws have been very imperfectly understood, not only by the applicants, but also by the Board. The citizens are beginning to comprehend that the license laws are neither so bad, nor so difficult of enforcement, as they thought they were. The prospect now is that, as a result of this movement, there will be a more thorough enforcement of the law than ever before.

A week or ten days ago a witness in the suit brought by George Washington Bowen, who seeks to recover the estate of the late M'me Jumel, on the ground of being her son, cast imputations upon the character of President George Washington, by stating that she had heard her mother say that he was the father of the plaintiff. This statement of the witness, an old lady named Mrs. Vandervort, created a considerable impression, and has been commented upon in numerous journals, it being so utterly at variance with the popular conception of Washington's character. The witness, whose family was on intimate terms of friendship with him, now states that from her mother's way of speaking about the matter she believes it was always said "in fun," and that she—the witness—thought it "very foolish to put it in the papers." We are glad that the garrulous old woman has had sense enough to undo, as far as she is able, the mischief wrought by her wagging tongue, and yet there are hundreds of people who read the original scandal but will never see the explanation, and so will go to their graves under the impression that Washington was a hypocritical libertine. And there are hundreds of others who will believe the first statement but will not believe the second, and who will go about whispering and hinting and chuckling over the supposed frailties of the great pariot.

While few can be found to approve the taste or applaud the spirit displayed by Mr. Sumner in closing his latest speech, wherein he offensively refers to the President in connection with the Ku-Klux outrages, it must be conceded that the wish is universal and earnest that the Southern problem might command the zeal, and unanimity, too, which have characterized the San Domingo business. There is something extraordinary in the fact that caucus decisions can be enforced for objects, on which, to say the least, the people are divided, while concerning questions about which there is no difference concentration of thought and unanimity of action at Washington appear quite out of the question. There is a San Domingo policy, but very little policy about the grave Southern question. All this the country does not like, any more than it likes the indifference manifested concerning Civil Service Reform and high taxes—questions of vital importance, and concerning which there is general unanimity—when there is so much energy manifested in acquiring part of an island for which nobody—without some speculators have done so—has asked. Let Mr. Morton, in the Senate, where, as much as any one, he is leader, take these things into account, so that the Republican party be no longer placed on an unnatural and destructive strain, but united and preserved, and the country benefited by the continuance of the Government in its hands.

Some of the numberless difficulties which independent journalism has to encounter are shown in the desperate efforts now being made by the agents and abettors of the Tammany ring to muzzle, or failing of that to destroy the New York Times. This paper has been instant in season and out of season in exposing and denouncing the various iniquities and corruptions which distinguish the municipal rule of that city. The natural result is that it has incurred the bitter hatred of every member of the gang, from Tweed and Sweeny down through all the descending strata of their apologists and allies. Hoffman abhors it, and so does the shoulder-hitting repeater who votes for him. Fisk loathes it, but not more than do the ballet queens whom he has stipended out of his stealings. There is an offensive and defensive alliance against it which embraces equally the vicious combinations of money and brains that concoct rascalities and set them in motion, and the purchaseable instrumentalities, whether lawyers or ballot-box stuffers, selected for carrying them out. The crusade which the Times has, almost single-handed, waged against these rogues has been as courageous and conscientious as the crusades of the Christian knights against the infidel Moslems. It has given no quarter, and asked none; and its ability and pluck deserve the approbation of every honest journal and every upright man. During the earlier stages of the conflict the Ring and its emissaries tried to intimidate it. A number of frivolous and vexatious suits were, on various pretexts, brought against it, and in every way that ingenuity could devise the frightened harpies sought to hamper and restrict its influence. When it became evident that these attempts only had the effect of causing it to double-shot its guns and increase the rapidity of its fire, another method was resorted to. Intimidation gave place to bribery, and offers were made to purchase its silence with money. When it was found that neither bullying nor coaxing was of avail, a few stockholders who have an itching palm, were approached, and overtures made to them to sell their shares to Tammany, so that the Ring-masters might get an opportunity to cripple it with mandamuses, injunctions and similar appliances. The principal manager and owner, however, has published a card in which he states that he will neither consent to the sale of the Times, nor discontinue his exposures of Tammany legislation and practice; and threatens that if Tweed, Sweeney and Co. should on any pretence succeed in getting control of that journal, he will establish another paper into which shall be carried all the principles which characterize its present management. It is barely possible that the unscrupulous character of the Ring, and the unlimited money at its command, may ultimately enable it to destroy the value of the Times as a property; but it does not seem possible that in the long run such an attempt to muzzle and coerce the press can result otherwise than in the increased prosperity of the man whom this clique appears to be bent on ruining. In New York, as in other cities, there are Republicans who, having managed to introduce their finger into the public pie, wink at corruption and deprecate exposure of the plunderers. This has rendered the labors of the Times far more arduous than they would else have been; but we entertain no doubt that, should the plotters succeed in wresting the management of that journal from its present hands, the prospective paper will eventually become even more successful and influential than the present one. The people whose welfare is bound up in the great issues of moral and corporate right-doing will always in the end reward those who have committed themselves fully to their side.

THE ONLY RIGHT WAY.

Than the Commercial no journal has been more fearlessly outspoken in its denunciation of the Ku-Klux outrages perpetrated upon white and black Republicans in the South, nor more earnest in its advocacy of prompt legislation and thorough action with respect to the unsettled States. We have repeatedly uttered our conviction that the present disordered condition of the South was largely owing to the moral support rendered its lawless classes by the Northern Democratic press, and have as often urged it to throw its influence upon the side of order and government by reprobating the excesses of its Southern allies. But the fatuity of Democracy is such that its absurd theory that the central government is acting outside of constitutional restrictions, blinds it to every danger and every duty; and hence, if it does not actually cry "tally-ho" to the hounds who are tearing their prey, it lends them its countenance by looking on with its hands in its pockets, and whistling a jovial air.

But while we insist that these disturbers of public peace and public welfare should not be allowed to go unwhipped of justice, we are firmly held in the belief that the time has also come wherein the Republican party must see to it that the bad and mischievous men who in those States have succeeded in obtaining place and power, are ousted from their positions as leaders and guides. The Republican party cannot any longer afford the strain which the mal-practice and mal-administration of men of reckless and boundless ambition have imposed upon it. One of the most prominent characteristics of the times is the unanimity with which the leading Republican journals begin to demand a radical reformation in the organization of its own ranks in this respect.

It is a good sign. Every thinking and intelligent man who can raise himself above the excitement of the moment must cherish the wish that the flames of partisan prejudice may speedily die out. To this end great caution and prudence must be exercised. Even under the most pacific circumstances the strife of politics tends to unsettle the calmest understanding and ulcerate the most benevolent heart. There are no bigotries nor absurdities too gross for parties to create or adopt under the stimulus of political passion. The path of all wise statesmanship lies between two opposite insanities, and we can never appreciate the grand serenity of Lincoln's immortal sentence, "With malice toward none, with charity for all," until we realize the madness, rancor and folly which mixed with the atmosphere he was compelled to breathe. Between men like the actors in the disgraceful rencontre in the United States Senate on Thursday—Davis, of Kentucky, the incarnation of hatred of innovation, and Butler, of Massachusetts, the incarnation of love of innovation, the welfare of the nation is in sore stress. The one would confine Liberty in a strait-waistcoat, the other would arm her with fire-brands, and both are partisans in whose struggles common sense is superseded by common consent.

In the disaffected States of the South the two most striking qualities underlying the disorder are those of levity and malignity. With the Southerner, hatred of the carpet-bagger takes the place of political principle—his conception of the character of the virtues has declined so deeply that treachery becomes justice and assassination patriotism; while on the other hand the Pucks who have been raised to the seats of Jove, like all incompetent men who are cursed with power, try to make proscription perform the work of foresight and insight. The Ku-Klux commit murder because they do not indulge in thought; they have ended in becoming fiendish because they started in being foolish—while the local officers of more than one of the Southern States have failed miserably because their initial movements were based on perversity and presumption. The scant thought which they ever had took the form of an inexorable but bad logic, and now that they have reached the limits of their little syllogism they find that the more they chop and hack the more complicated become their difficulties. No great conception of statesmanship that might serve to open a path through the entanglement comes into their unfertile brain; the very best of which they seem capable is to go on blundering and blundering. Many a man who would make an admirable leader of a debating club ruins a State by being put at the head of its affairs.

Now the grave problem of the South is to be solved in no such supercilious way. It is a problem which calls for the exercise of the genius and energy and patience of our wisest and most experienced men—men of that large and liberal intelligence which thinks into the meaning of institutions—who are emancipated from egotism, passion and folly—who are tolerant as well as earnest, and merciful as well as just. It is a problem which calls for the overthrow of corrupt and incompetent State officers, for the purification of legislation, for the lowering of taxation and the practice of strict economy, for the ostracism of demagogues who parade themselves as martyrs, for the belief that every "rebel" is not necessarily a reprobate, and above all for that true patriotism which the permanent welfare of the country puts above the exigences of party or the desire of power.

NARROW GAUGE.

The subject of narrow gauge railroads is now attracting very general attention throughout the country. Their practicability and cheapness, both as respects construction and expense afterward, seem to be conceded. With the constantly increasing demand for railroads, the inability to raise money for them all, and from the fact that many of those projected can only be expected to do a limited amount of business, it is anticipated that ere long narrow gauge roads will be constructed in considerable number. Such a road now in Wales, only only one foot seven inches in width, carries more tons of freight and more passengers than some of the most prosperous railroads in this country. Another in Germany, two feet seven inches wide, which cost only $8,000 a mile, and whose running expenses are but sixty cents per train-mile, makes money with a small business by carrying freight at two cents per ton per mile. Similar experiments with narrow gauge roads have been successful in Russia and in Norway, in Austria and in Canada, and also in South America. In a mountainous country their advantages are peculiarly illustrated by their great saving in excavating and grading, and their ability to run on shorter curves and heavier grades than the broader roads is demonstrated. They run smaller and lighter cars, but experience has shown that they are equally safe in all respects.

In the West, we believe, schemes for building narrow gauge roads are far advanced, if work upon them has not already begun. One is to be constructed from the main line of the Pacific road in Nevada, to the White Pine mineral regions, a distance of over one hundred miles, and in Colorado, also, it is proposed to penetrate the mountains with such branch roads. A committee of the Massachusetts legislature has reported on the subject, estimating that these narrow roads, say of two feet nine inches in width, can be built and equipped for $14,000 per mile, as against $24,000 as the lowest cost for a road of the ordinary width. One disadvantage is mentioned, viz: that all goods brought into the trunk lines upon them would have to be transhipped to the larger cars, but even this is not considered sufficient to counterbalance the great gains in the original cost and the expense of the maintenance. If the advantages claimed for this description of roads be well founded, and of this there seems to be little doubt, their general adoption is pretty well assured, unless the superiority in speed, conceded to the broader gauges, as passenger carriers, more than counterbalances drawbacks as freight carriers.

What curious anomalies there are in our modern civilization. Mr. Frederick Douglass accompanied the San Domingo Commissioners to the Republics of Dominica and Hayti, making considerably extended journeys into the former country, and encountering people of all classes and conditions. While he has given it as his judgment that the Haytiens are a far inferior people to the Dominicans, he does not appear to entertain a very exalted opinion of the character of the latter. Wherever he went, however, and from whomsoever he found himself in contact with, he received hospitality and courteous treatment. Not until he got away from the barbarism and oppression of those semi-savage islands, and had neared the capital of his own civilized and Christianized country, did he meet with insult and contempt. We should like to know what are the logical inferences and deductions drawn by Mr. Douglass from his treatment while on the mail boat between Acquia Creek and Washington. It is an interesting psychological question, for he is a shrewd thinker, and reaches conclusions out of the common way. Perhaps he will fancy that if the outcome of tropic despotism is courtesy, and the results of temperate-zoned freedom are snobbery and cant, it is an open question whether annexation is desirable after all. "Don't join the church," said a man to his scape-grace friend. "It cannot possibly benefit you, and may result in incalculable mischief to the members." May be Mr. Douglass recollected this story. But if he did not it is none the less pertinent.

The caisson at the east abutment of the great railroad bridge across the Mississippi at St. Louis having, on Tuesday, reached the rock, at the distance of one hundred and nine feet ten inches beneath the surface of the water, and one hundred and twenty-seven feet four inches below the city directrix, the Superintendent and others engaged in the work saw fit to indulge in a jubilation. They felt so rejoiced at reaching the rock bed under the Mississippi that they turned on in full blast all the steam whistles about the works and fired a salute with a small piece of artillery. The sudden outburst of a deafening chorus of whistles, varied by the report of the cannon, caused not a little excitement about the river. The last caisson has now been sunk to the required depth, and when the air chamber has been filled, the remainder of the bridge work will be above ground or water.

We do not see why the fact that Mark Twain has made $6,000 out of his burlesque biography should be heralded by the press as a matter of great importance. We by no means agree with those persons who can discern neither humor nor usefulness in his writings; but neither do we accept the remarkable pecuniary successes which have rewarded his literary efforts as evidence of their extraordinary merit. There are to-day to be found scores of thinkers, scholars, philosophers and men of science, any one of whom towers infinitely above Mark Twain in solid endowments and acquirements, who have written books that, could they have gotten them published, would have materially increased the world's stock of knowledge and wisdom. But a jester will draw a crowd where divine Plato must discourse to empty benches.

The question on which the Democracy are preparing to go before the country is the repeal of the reconstruction acts, touching which the Herald remarks as follows: "But if the Democratic party shall attempt again to try the experiment of unsettling the fixed facts resulting from the war they will surely be again defeated. In frankly accepting the Constitution as it is they have a fair prospect of success; but if they will insist upon 'the Constitution as it was' under Buchanan, they will surely be again defeated. It is for the Northern Democracy this time to bring the South to reason, instead of following the Hotspurs of the South once more on the road to ruin. Surely Tammany Hall has had enough of that folly."

The great church law suit, growing out of the suspension of Geo. H. Stuart, Esq., for singing hymns instead of psalms, in 1868, and involving the large property of the First Reformed Presbyterian Church of Philadelphia, has occupied the Supreme Court during the March setting, in Philadelphia, and is now drawing to a close. Mr. Stuart was on the witness stand on Tuesday, for four hours, and testified that he never sang a hymn at a Reformed Presbyterian Church service, except on one occasion, at the church of the Rev. Dr. McLeod of New York. This reverend gentleman was present in Court, aiding the party who suspended Mr. Stuart, and who are now trying to eject him and his pastor, the Rev. Dr. Wylie, from their house of worship.

A delegation from the "Colored Veterans" serenaded Colonel Forney at his residence a few evenings ago. The Colonel made them a neat speech, which he concluded as follows: "I suppose the direct significance of this compliment is that the President of the United States has called me to an office which I neither asked nor solicited; which I accepted without conditions, and which I shall discharge with perfect independence, to the interest of and according to the fundamental principles which underlie the great Republican party."

Mrs. Victoria C. Woodhull started her paper for the purpose of advocating her claims to the Presidency. George Francis Train has just established a journal to forward his own aspirations in the same direction. We trust that if these persons are nominated they will make arrangements for a joint discussion and presentation of their respective claims. It is the only way we can think of for getting rid of them. They would probably talk each other to death.

"ABOUT RUNNERS."

The article in the Commercial a few days ago has called forth the following from a correspondent:

The above must meet the approval of every business house in the country. It is a great and growing evil and the sooner it is stopped the better for the business interests of the community. Let the good work began by the glass manufacturers be carried out by other interests. Let a meeting be called and petitions be sent asking the Legislature to pass a law making it an offense punishable by fine and imprisonment for any person to offer goods by sample away from his place of business in this State. This and this alone will correct the evil and result to the benefit of our business interests now perfectly paralyzed by the present system. Wholesale.

West End Avenue.

To the Editor of the Pittsburgh Commercial:

The Allegheny and New Brighton Pike extends about four miles west of Allegheny City, the capital stock of which, as appears by the certificates, is twenty thousand dollars. On the bed of this pike it is proposed to construct the so-called West End Avenue. For that purpose a bill has been sent to Senator Graham to pass, authorizing the appointment of commissioners to buy franchises, &c., of said pike, and to levy, assess and collect a tax on all property benefited by the proposed improved road lying within one mile thereof, the amount so assessed, levied, &c., not to exceed $20,000 a mile for construction. The cost of the old pike may be put at $20,000. Divide this by four and we have the cost per mile $25,000; then by adding to this the cost of right of way, damages, &c., the cost as authorized by the present bill is about $30,000 a mile.

This $30,000 is to be levied, assessed and collected off of the lands lying within one mile of each side said road. Bearing in mind that the river runs within one half mile of the road on the South the said sum must be be collected from one mile on the north side, and one half mile on the south side. There being 640 acres in one square mile, and 320 acres in one half square mile, the $30,000 will have to be paid by 960 acres. Let us see what that will be. Thirty thousand divided by nine hundred and sixty gives $31 25 as the assessment per acre to make this new road. A tax of this kind on farmers who have other roads to travel, but whose lands reach towards this road is pretty steep. Say every hundred acres pays three thousand dollars. This to men of wealth and business may not seem a large amount, but to farmers, whose incomes are small, it means a mortgaging of their farms to pay it.

But will our senators and representatives pass such a bill? Will they disregard the voice of the great rural district at the end and sides of this road? But one meeting, and that by a bare majority, has voted favorably, and that meeting was packed for the occasion. Will our senators and representatives say, by favoring special legislation of this kind, that they think it right? Will they pass a bill to tax the hard working farmers and gardeners that a few sports may have a good driving road? This road can be made by voluntary subscription, and this is the way it ought to be made. Taxation is odious unless by the consent of the people, and special legislation imposing special taxes, is peculiarly odious. Let no such bill pass. Republican.

The Purest and Safest.

The efficacy of Hostetter's celebrated stomach bitters as a specific for recruiting the enfeebled body and cheering the desponding mind, has passed into a proverb. In the United States, where this marvelous tonic has borne down all opposition and eclipsed all rivalry, the demand for it has annually increased in a heavier and heavier ratio for years, until at last the regular sales of this preparation exceed those of all other stomachics combined. Eminent members of the medical profession and hospital surgeons without number have candidly admitted that the pharmacopœia of the faculty contains no prescription that produces such beneficial results in dyspepsia, general debility and nervous diseases, as Hostetter's Bitters. To use the language of a venerable physician of New York, "The Bitters are the purest stimulant and the safest tonic we have." But the uses of the great vegetable antidote are much more comprehensive than such praise would imply. As a preparatory antidote to epidemic disease, a genial stimulant, a promoter of constitutional vigor, an appetizer, a stomachic, and a remedy for nervous debility, no medicinal preparation has ever attained the reputation of Hostetter's Bitters. It is the household tonic of the American people, and in all human probability will be so for centuries to come. The magnates of science recognize its merits; and that it is emphatically the medicine of the masses, is proven by its vast and ever increasing sales.

GENERAL AND PARTICULAR.

A curious event has recently transpired on the Erie Railroad, near Susquehanna, where a portion of the track has sunken, and all attempts to fill it have been unavailing; for though it had been fed with hundreds of train-loads of gravel, it is a dozen feet below the level of the track, and is still sinking. The stockholders think they have now found the place where Fisk has put all the earnings of the road for the past five years.

The Washington Star says a private entertainment will be given to-day to President Grant and the High Commission by Mr. S. T. Suit at Suitland, his fine country place in Prince George county, Maryland. The prominent features of the entertainment will be a fox hunt and deer chase, and from the nature of the country and Mr. Suit's large experience in hunting and field sports, he will, doubtless, be able to provide his guests with some exciting sport.

The new drug clerk bill passed by the New York Legislature simply provides that both druggists and drug clerks shall know enough to fill up prescriptions correctly, and thus give sick people and the doctors fair play in the fight against disease and death. Why shall we not have such a law in Pennsylvania, and enforced, too?

The wool interest of California is getting to be something immense. Last year that State produced 20,000,000 pounds, or 8,000,000 more than all the British North American provinces, and nearly one-third of all clipped in the United States.

The New York Commercial says: What is known as the "Doc Simmons' Fund" does not turn out to be a very great success. A few hundreds of dollars have been collected and paid over to the family of the deceased engineer, but public sympathy has not outlived the nine days' wonder of his heroic death, and having ceased to talk about him we cease to care about him also, occupying our minds with what is of the present, and forgetting to put our hands in our pockets in memory of what is past.

The successive stages of Northwestern growth are remarkably illustrated by a paragraph in the Waverly, Iowa, Republican, which says: "We have a man in our city who was born in 1800, and has a son who was born in the Territory of Michigan, and another one in the Territory of Wisconsin, and still another one in the Territory of Iowa, and also a daughter born in the State of Iowa—all in the same house! Col. J. W. Woods is the man."

The Belgians are highly excited in consequence of the report that the Pope has determined to take up his abode in their country. The Liberals and Clericals in Belgium are about equally strong. The Clericals want the Pope there, and the Liberals threaten they will even resort to force in order to keep him out of the country. Serious complications are expected in consequence.

Recently a party of hunters discovered in the vicinity of Parksville, Mo., a cave which is supposed from articles found therein to be occupied by counterfeiters. Several boxes with padlocks to them, rolls of bank note paper, and also dies, inks and other appliances and tools such as might be used in the manufacture of counterfeit money were discovered, but the discoverers seem to have become apprehensive of the sudden appearance of the occupants of the den, and made haste to leave the locality, thinking their throats in danger should they pursue their investigation either to satisfy curiosity or with a view of bringing the outlaws to justice.

Police Superintendent Kelso, of New York, is roundly abused by Western papers for what is designated his "exalted cheek" in offering $2,500 reward for the murderer Forrester, when the relatives of the murdered man have announced their willingness to pay over $60,000 for the arrest of the assassin. This pother about the reward may explain Forrester's remarkable success as a "hider."

The fact is stated that Mr. J. Davis, while on his recent tour through the South, traveled in male attire.

Milwaukee has had a case of suspended animation. A child sickened, and to all appearances dying, arrangements for burial were made. On the third day after, during the funeral service, the officiating Minister casually placed his hand upon the folded arms of the little sleeper, and noticing a warmth unusual in the dead, advised postponement of the burial. His suspicions proved correct, in the reanimation of the child, which was alive at last accounts, with a fair chance of recovery.

PERSONAL.

G. A. Townsend makes the following statement concerning Colonel Forney's acceptance of the Philadelphia Collectorship: "It is upon my own responsibility, and without positive knowledge, that I say that Colonel Forney's reasons for taking the office may have been merely a circumstantial one. When he was Secretary of the Senate, a connection whom he had placed in a subordinate position there proved to be a defaulter to more than half a hundred thousand dollars. This money Secretary Forney paid out of his private income, and, as he had but a few years before purchased an expensive piece of property in the heart of Philadelphia, and, as his Washington newspaper, through the disaffection of the administration, had ceased to yield him a large income, he felt the loss of that large sum. He is happy in the possession of one of the most conscientious and diligent publishers in the country, and it was said to me in Philadelphia that this publisher had promised to make straight all the embarrassments, provided the income of the Collectorship of the Port would be accepted by him. Thus obligations weaken us all."

Moses C. Tyler writes as follows of Swinburne the poet: "Swinburne vibrates between the inspirations of wine and the exasperations of madness; and between fear and disgust at his conduct, people are forced to exclude him from their houses. A sip of wine brings on the craze which goads him into behavior setting at naught all decency. What can be done with an illustrious young poet who, invited to your reception, makes such havoc with the proprieties as to reach across the room with open jaws to bite the bare neck of a handsome young lady, whose beauty has attracted his gaze; or who turns from the person with whom he happens to be conversing to butt his head furiously against the wall?" All who have heard of the drunken and demoniac eccentricities of Edgar A. Poe, can form some notion of the similar freaks of Swinburne.

Theodore Tilton resigns the Presidency of the Union Woman's Suffrage Association, for the reason that he is "unwilling to remain at the head of an association whose President should be a woman, and not a man," and adds that "since the public is no longer shocked but pleased at woman's occupancy of the platform, and prefers to hear her own statement of her own case, the fitness of things demands that the movement for woman's enfranchisement shall find its official leaders in women themselves."

Mrs. Martha A. Lamb, formerly of Maumee City Ohio, has been elected a member of the New York Historical Society, being the first lady ever admitted to that body.

"Olivia" writes that "the carpets at the Executive Mansion begin to show the result of the wear and tear of a winter's campaign, and the dingy pall seems to wrap all the other surroundings. Mrs. Grant looks weary and worn, and, though her manner is as kind and engaging as ever, it is plain to see that she will be glad when this handshaking is over."

It is asserted that Nilsson will soon appear at the New York Academy as Ophelia, in Ambrose Thomas's opera Hamlet, Miss Cary taking the part of the Queen, Verger that of Hamlet, and Brignoli that of Laertes.

Theodore M. Payne, only son of a wealthy retired merchant of Leeds, England, who disappeared a number of years ago, after a career of reckless dissipation in London, has recently turned up as a Greek priest in Archangel. He is now in his forty-third year, is a graduate of Oxford, and a man of fine attainments.

When General Sheridan was in Rome, the sculptor Harnish, made a full length statue of him, and his portraits were painted by Healy and Thomas Buchanan Read.

It having been asserted, or insinuated, by the Toledo (O.) Commercial, that Mr. D. R. Locke ("Nasby") was an applicant for the postmastership at that place, that gentleman, in a card, denounces the statement as false, and says he has never asked, "in any shape, for that or any other place under the present administration."

Horace Greeley wrote a letter the other day to Mr. Ansel Warren, in whose newspaper office at Poultney, Vermont, he first learned printing, to congratulate the old gentleman on his golden wedding celebration at Quincy, Illinois, and he took occasion to say, en passant: "I am poor, but it is my own fault; because I indorse other folks' notes. One was brought me to-day for $5,000, which I must find a way to pay within a few days. I have fooled away at least $150,000 trying to help others, and it has done no good. Now I guess my foot is down that I will not indorse another note. So you see the stables all get locked after the horses are stolen. Let me hope that you and Mrs. Warren are well."

A lady who had been annoyed considerably while journeying towards Boston by a couple of would-be politicians, at last had a chance to vent her indignation. One of them remarked that he hoped "we would have a fool for the next President." "Why," calmly retorted the lady, "do you want the office?" Her rejoinder had the desired effect, and stopped the noisy discussion.

NEW 7-30 GOLD LOAN.
Safe! Profitable! Permanent!
JAY COOKE & CO.
Offer for Sale at Par and Accrued Interest the
First Mortgage Land Grant Gold Bonds
OF THE
Northern Pacific Railway Co

These Bonds are secured, first, by a First Mortgage on the Railroad itself, its rolling stock, and all equipments; second, by a First Mortgage on its entire Land Grant, being more than Twenty-two Thousand Acres of Land to each mile of road.
The Bonds are free from United States Tax; the Principal and Interest are payable in Gold—the Principal at the end of Thirty Years, and the Interest Semi-annually, at the rate of SEVEN AND THREE-TENTHS PER CENT. per annum.
They are issued in denominations of $100, $500 $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.
The Trustees under the Mortgage are Messrs. Jay Cooke, of Philadelphia, and J. Edgar Thomson, President of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company.
These Northern Pacific 7-30 Bonds will at all times, before maturity, be receivable at TEN PER CENT. PREMIUM (or 1.10) in exchange for the Company's lands at their lowest cash price.
In addition to their absolute safety, these Bonds yield an income larger, we believe, than any other first-class security. Persons holding United States 5-20's can, by converting them into Northern Pacifics, increase their yearly income one third, and still have a perfectly reliable investment.
HOW TO GET THEM.—Your nearest Bank or Banker will supply these Bonds in any desired amount, and of any needed denomination. Persons wishing to exchange stocks or other Bonds for these, can do so with any of our Agents, who will allow the highest current prices for all marketable securities.
Those living in localities remote from Banks may send money, or other bonds, directly to us by express, and we will send back Northern Pacific Bonds at our own risk, and without cost to the investor. For further information, pamphlets, maps, etc., call on or address the undersigned, or any of the Banks or Bankers employed to sell this Loan.
"After thorough investigation, we have accepted an agency for the sale of these popularly approved Bonds, and confidently recommend them to our customers and investors generally."

TO IRON MANUFACTURERS.

PROPOSALS FOR A
First-Order Iron Lighthouse,
TO BE ERECTED ON
ALLIGATOR REEF, FLORIDA REEFS.
Under Appropriations Therefore of $160,000.

Treasury Department,
Office of the Lighthouse Board,
Washington City, March 25, 1871.

Sealed Proposals will be received at this office until 1 o'clock of FRIDAY, the 28th day of April, 1871, from Iron Manufacturers only, for furnishing the Materials and Labor of all kinds necessary to construct a First-Order Iron Lighthouse for Alligator Reef, Florida Reefs, in accordance with the specifications and drawings.

The same to be delivered, at the expense of the contractor, on board of a sea-going vessel or vessels, at any port nearest to the manufacturers' workshops and accessible to such vessels.

The glass for the lantern, the lens, lamps, and furniture, belonging thereto will be provided by the Lighthouse Board, and their cost is not to be included in the amount of the bid.

The bid should state the sum for which the ENTIRE WORK, as shown on the drawings, will be completed, fully erected at the workshops, and then taken down after acceptance, and delivered as aforesaid, and should also state the day and date on which it shall be so completed and delivered, under forfeit as specified in the "Form of Bid."

The work will be carried on under the personal supervision of an agent of the Board, and all facilities must be afforded him for inspecting the material and workmanship. Such parts of either as are not in accordance with the drawings and specifications must, in case of rejection, be made good at the expense of the contractor.

The Board reserves the right to reject any proposal for any reasons it may deem sufficient.

Each bid must be accompanied by a bond, signed by the bidder and competent surety, (certified to be such by some officer known to the Treasury Department), in the sum of twenty thousand dollars, ($20,000,) that, in the event of the acceptance of such bid, the necessary contract will be entered into within ten days after notice is given by the Board that the bid has been accepted.

Bond and security, in the sum of twenty thousand dollars, ($20,000,) for the faithful performance of the contract, will be required.

A copy of the plans and specifications must be inclosed with the bid, as evidence as to the object of the proposal.

All proposals must be signed, sealed, and indorsed "Proposals for a Lighthouse on Alligator Reef, Florida Reefs," and then inclosed in another envelope and directed, prepaid, to Rear-Admiral W. B. Shubrick, Chairman of the Lighthouse Board, Treasury Department, Washington, D. C.

Any bidder may be present and witness the opening of the bids at the time and place hereinbefore specified.

Payments for the work will be made quarterly, upon estimates certified to by the agent of the Board; but 20 per centum of the amount of each estimate will be withheld until the satisfactory completion of the contract.

Plans specifications, and forms of proposals may be obtained from Lieutenant Colonel J. C. Duane, United States Engineers Lighthouse Engineer, first and second districts, Portland, Maine, and at 13 Exchange street, Boston, Massachusetts; Lieutenant Colonel I. C. Woodruff, United States Engineers, Lighthouse Engineer, third district, Tompkinsville, Staten Island, New York; G. Castor Smith, Esq., Assistant Lighthouse Engineer, fourth district, southeast corner Sixth and Walnut streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; Captain Peter C. Hains, United States Engineers, Lighthouse Engineer, fifth district, Union Bank Building, Baltimore, Maryland; and from the undersigned.

WEAK NERVES.
WARNER'S DYSPEPSIA TONIC is prepared expressly for Dyspeptics and those suffering from Weak Nerves with habitual Constipation. There are very few who have not employed physicians for years to remedy what this preparation will do in a few weeks, by strengthening the Nerves, enriching the Circulation, restoring Digestion, giving Strength mentally and physically, enabling those who may have been confined for years to their rooms as invalids to again resume their occupations and all the duties of life. One trial is all we ask to enable this remedy to recommend itself to the most skeptical. It is a slightly stimulating tonic and a splendid appetizer; its strengthens the stomach, and restores the generative organ and digestion to a normal healthy state. Weak, nervous and dyspeptic persons should use WARNER'S DYSPEPSIA TONIC. For sale by druggists. Price One Dollar. TTh8

FINANCE AND TRADE

FRIDAY EVENING, March 31, 1871.

Money markets here are not working comfortably for borrowers, and occasionally they are pretty hardly pressed for the want of adequate discount accommodations. Outside lenders are usually too high in their rates for money, and many responsible and perfectly sound parties would put out considerable paper if they could get it accepted by private lenders at reasonable rates, but rather than pay over 9 or 10 per cent. they prefer waiting for a fortnight or so, when the banks will take all the good paper offered.

—Messrs. Ira B. McVay & Co. report the following quotations of Government bonds in New York to-day, as furnished them by Jay Cooke & Co., their correspondents:

	Morning.	Noon.	Clos'g.
U. S. Bonds of 1881	116⅛	116⅛	116⅛

—The New York Evening Post of yesterday, says: The new loan is meeting with decided favor, and a noticeable feature in favor of its early success is the fact that the subscriptions are no longer limited to the national banks, some of the large private banking houses in this city having taken hold of the work in good earnest. A serious drawback at the start was the large number of agents here, and the appointment of agents abroad who were not in sympathy with the success of the loan. The latter error has been substantially corrected, and, we understand arrangements are in progress looking to greater efficiency in this country. As to the merit of the bonds nothing too good can be said, and, as we have before pointed out, an improved management as to popularizing them by active and efficient agencies has been all that was wanting to hasten the success of the loan. Southern State bonds at the first board were active. Tennessees and Virginias were buoyant, particularly the latter; North Carolinas "special tax" were weak; Missouris were strong and South Carolinas steady. In correction of the statement published in a morning contemporary to the effect that a combination had been organized to resist the payment of State taxes in South Carolina—the statement also setting forth that the taxes were not coming in—we are informed on the authority of the Treasurer of Richland county, in which is the capital of the State, and who is also a prominent banker in the State and the United States Assessor for the upper thirteen counties, and who arrived in this city to-day, that the statement is essentially incorrect; that to his personal knowledge the taxes are coming in rapidly, and that in several of what were regarded as the most troublesome counties a large proportion of the taxes—say three-quarters to seven-eighths of the entire amount—have already been paid. He also represents that the political disturbances in the State seem to have culminated.

—The stock market was raided by the "bull" cliques, which took advantage of each lull in business to break up prices by the rapid sale of a few hundred shares, leaving the "bears," whose hopes they had thus excited, to keep the market depressed by speculative sales at the reduced scale of prices. Whenever the "bulls" turned around to buy again the market ran up suddenly. The result of this strategy was a feverish and unsettled tone to the day's business and a gradual lowering of prices, which declined one to one and a half per cent. The exceptions, however, were the Northwest stocks, Union Pacific, Pacific Mail, Western Union and Wabash, which were firm.

—The following table, made up from dispatches received at J. W. Kennedy's Stock Rooms, Apollo building, No. 80 Fourth avenue, shows the prices of Railway Stocks, Gold, etc., at the various sessions of the New York Stock Exchange during the day:

PRODUCE AND GENERAL MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL,
FRIDAY, March 31, 1871.

REMARKS—These are moving days, and being among the number who "still keep pushing along and moving" the inconvenience attendant upon such occasions prevented us giving that close attention to the markets which, under different circumstances, we should have done. Business men, too, are not all permanent fixtures, and some of them have been moving, generally, however, to better and more convenient locations, of which fact they will inform their customers through the columns of the COMMERCIAL. Flour—the mills still maintain the recent advance in flour, though stores have not advanced their prices. Receipts since our last 605 barrels. Grain is in fair receipt, prices firm, but with no upward tendency. Groceries—the market is firm at quotations noted. Business is quite active, and a large portion of the dealers in the vicinity of Pittsburgh who have heretofore been purchasing in Eastern markets find it to their advantage to get their supplies in the market. Bacon and provisions are unchanged in prices, with a good local demand reported. Whisky is firm with a fair demand reported at unchanged prices, the spasmodic ups and downs in the Cincinnati and Chicago markets having no perceptible effect here. The produce markets, as well as the local markets, are fully supplied.

Below find the wholesale prices unless otherwise noted.

APPLES—We are reported sales at $4@5 for choice ₩ barrel. Common $1 00@2 00 ₩ bbl. Receipts since our last, 40 bbls.

APPLE BUTTER—Sales of 1 gallon buckets at $10 50 ₩ doz; in kegs and firkins 70@80c ₩ gal.

PITTSBURGH OIL TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL,
SATURDAY, April 1, 1871.

REMARKS—The market continues very dull, being entirely devoid of animation; prices weak, with a declining tendency. There were plenty of sellers, whilst buyers were not in attendance. The advantage was on the side of buyers, who manifested no inclination to make use of the same.

CRUDE.

The nominal rates were as follows: Spot 10¼c; April 10¼c; buyer's option till July, 11@11¼c; seller's option same time 10¼@10½c; buyer's option all the year 12½@12¾c; seller's option all the year 10½c.

SALES:

1,000 bbls spot	10¼
1,000 bbls s. o. till July	10¼
1,000 bbls s. o. till July	10¼

Crude was offered on Oil creek at $3 90 per bbl—a decline.

REFINED.

We could not learn of a single transaction for any delivery. The nominal rates are: spot 22½c; April 23½c; May 24c; June 24½c; July 25c.

[Per Western Union Telegraph Line.]

TITUSVILLE, March 31.—The Herald says: The market was weak to-day, with sellers to meet the offers made by buyers yesterday, while but few of the latter seemed inclined to accept oil even at the concessions. On upper road prices was no lower than the lowest of yesterday, but more than that figure was realized. The same price prevailed on lower road, with but one exception, of an advance of 2½ cents at Oil City. There were late in the day considerable come down on delivery, during next month, being contracted for at $4 12½. A lot of 100,000 barrels was offered, sellers 90 days at Oil City, for $4 10, but found no purchasers. We quote the following:

SALES.

500 bbls upper road, regardless	$4 00
300 bbls upper road, regardless	4 00
500 bbls upper road, regardless	4 00
12 cars lower road, regardless	4 00

PITTSBURGH LIVE STOCK MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL,
FRIDAY, March 31, 1871.

Cattle.

The run of cattle is heavy for this time of the week. The market has become dull and prices are not good as in the early part of the week. Cattle are selling slowly at figures ¼c lower than last week, and some remain over unsold to-day. The advices from the East are not flattering, and a further decline is probable. Below find quotations ruling to-day: Extra, 1,200 to 1,500 steers, $7 to $7 25; good to prime, 1,100 to 1,200, $6 50 to $6 75; common to medium, 1,000 to 1,100, $5 75 to $6 00; bulls, stags and cows, 800 to 1,500, $4 to $5 50; stock steers, 800 to 1,000, $5 00 to $5 50.

Hogs.

The arrivals of hogs to-day are heavy. The market is bad and prices are declining. A great many hogs are in the pens unsold, and still they are coming plenty. The price on York hogs has dropped ¼c, buyers refusing to purchase unless concessions to that extent are made. The supply exceeds the demand, and hogs will do no better until they slack up coming. Below find quotations ruling to-day: Extra Philadelphia $7 40; good to prime Philadelphia, 225 to 250, $7 25; good to prime New York, 180 to 220, $6 50@6 75.

Sheep.

The run of sheep was fair to-day. They are selling slow at prices about ¼c lower than on Monday. The quality of sheep on sale this week was about an average of those generally on sale at this market. Prices have been steady all week, and holders had no trouble in selling at fair prices. Clipped sheep have not been selling very well owing to the unfavorable weather, but if it should become warm they will do better. Below find quotations: Good to prime, 85 to 90 lbs, $6 25@6 50; decent to fair, 75 to 80 lbs, $5 50@6 00; mean to common 70 to 75 lbs, $4 75@5 25; foot rot and scalawags, by the head, $2 00; clipped, $4 00@5 50.

IRON MARKETS.

NEW YORK.

March 30.—American pig—there is not much doing in pig iron, as consumers are buying as sparingly as possible; moreover, many of them are out of coal, and can therefore use no iron. Unless coal is obtained speedily the Hudson River furnaces must go out of blast. The stock of iron has been steadily decreasing, and is now very small. We quote $34 to $36 for No. 1 Foundry, and $32 to $34 for No. 2. No. 1 Hudson River iron can be had for $34; and most of the Lehigh brands for $35, though $36 is asked for two or three.

Scotch Pig.—The stock of Scotch iron here is light, there being no Coltness, and the stock of Gartsherrie probably not exceeding 75 tons. There is some Coltness, however, on the way. The market is no more than firm, and the demand does not come up to the expectations of importers. We note sales of 500 to 600 tons Glengarnock, to be shipped from Liverpool, on private terms; 200 tons Glengarnock at $32 50; 100 tons Gartsherrie, ex ship, at $34; 100 tons Eglinton at $33. We quote Gartsherrie at $34; Glengarnock at $33 to $34; Eglinton at $34.

WEEKLY REVIEW OF THE PIG IRON AND BLOOM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL,
SATURDAY, April 1, 1871.

The market for raw irons is substantially as at date of our last review as regards standard forge pig. After the heavy sales last week there is, as might have been anticipated, fewer sales making this week; but the offerings have correspondingly decreased. Numerous furnaces are sold up as far as owners deem safe for forward deliveries.

Consumption continues large, and although steadily reducing stocks in the hands of consumers, there is no actual scarcity of iron, as all parties secure any mixture their wants require.

Notwithstanding the many rumors afloat pro and con relative to the troubles in the anthracite mining district, we have made up our mind to wait events, let who will whip.

We are advised of consignments of some lots of bituminous coal and coke smelted forge stock from St. Louis and other points in the west, which smacks a little like "shipping coals to Newcastle."

In charcoal stock business has been light.

We are reported the following sales:

Bituminous Coal-Smelted from L. S. Ores.

200 tons close gray	$34 00—4 mos.
100 tons gray forge	35 00—4 mos.

St. Paul	S. S. Merrill, Hutchinson	April 4.
Missouri River	Katie P. Kountz, Mason	April 5.
St. Paul	Exchange	McCallam, April 4.

THE marks last evening indicated five feet ten inches and falling. The weather during the day was pleasant. Trade on the landing appeared brisk.

THE steamer Stella arrived yesterday with a tow of empty barges.

THE steamer Granite State, Capt. Kerr, left for Portsmouth with a good trip.

THE steamer Shannon, Capt. Beatty, left for New Orleans with a fair trip of freight and passengers.

THE new steamer Exchange, Captain A. C. McCallum, will have dispatch for Cairo and St. Louis.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—The steamer Ironsides, for St. Louis and St. Paul, is now receiving freight at foot of Ferry street, and will leave on Monday, April 3d.

THE Belle Lee, we learn, has been relieved from her awkward predicament at Nine Mile Point, and is now coming on her way rejoicing.

THE towboat Collier and barges, Capt. Shedden, left for St. Louis with a good trip of miscellaneous freight.

THE Belle of Texas arrived at Galveston on the 23d, with five hundred bales of cotton from Trinity river.

THE Nashville Banner says: "The Empire and Tobe Hurt have gone to the boneyard until business improves."

THE United States mail packets on the slack-water leave daily at 8 A. M. and 5 P. M. These boats, all side-wheelers, built expressly for the trade, are in charge of experienced and attentive officers.

Capt. Dave Campbell purchased the towboat McPorter last Saturday, at St. Louis, for the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars. She will be wrecked and her machinery offered for sale.

THE new steamer S. S. Merrill, Capt. A. M. Hutchins, is announced for St. Louis and St. Paul. This boat has the best of accommodations and is in charge of careful and attentive officers who come well recommended. She leaves on Tuesday.

THE splendid passenger packet Exchange, Captain A. C. McCallam, is announced for St. Louis, Galena, Dubuque and St. Paul. This boat has superior accommodations, and is in charge of careful and attentive officers. Mr. John A. Dales has charge of the office.

THE new Fort Benton packet Katie P. Kountz, Captain R. C. Mason, is announced for the head waters of the Missouri. This boat was built especially for that trade, and offers superior accommodations for that direction.

OFFICIAL SURVEY OF THE OHIO RIVER FROM PITTSBURGH TO CAIRO.—At the request of our river friends we have published a third edition of this important table, with various improvements. It can be obtained at the COMMERCIAL office at ten cents per copy, or three copies for twenty-five cents.

DUBUQUE, March 28.—Northwestern down; took the largest shipment that has been made from this port this season, including 1,100 sacks grain, 100 bbls flour, 25 bales hay, and went into Galena to fill out her cargo. Ice still firm in Lake Pepin. River stationary. Weather pleasant.

THE case of Charles Alling, administrator of the estate of Otis R. Sappington, vs. Cincinnati and Louisville Mail Line Company, for five thousand dollars damages, on account of the collision of the steamers United States and America, by reason of which Sappington lost his life, is dragging its slow length along at Vevay, Indiana, before Judge Carter.

THE fine packet Carrie Brooks, Captain Darlington, takes her departure this day at four P. M. for Wheeling, Marietta and Zanesville. This boat is well found in every respect, and is a living favorite with passengers and shippers. Our old friend Geo. L. Reppert will be found in the office, a certain guarantee that things will be done about right.

HO FOR CINCINNATI.—The splendid side wheel packet St. Charles, Captain C. A. Dravo, takes her departure this day at four P. M. for Wheeling, Marietta, Parkersburg, Portsmouth and Cincinnati. The St. Charles is an A No. 1 boat in every respect, and is in charge of as gentlemanly a set of officers as can be found. Mr. W. S. Dravo presides in the office. Call early and secure a good room.

THE New Orleans Bulletin, of Monday, says: "Business in our leading tributaries is by no means as brisk as it should be. There is still enough doing in them, however, to keep off fly-time a few weeks longer. Western boats load principally with railroad iron, and now and then fill out to advantage with other freight. The coming summer promises to be very dull in steamboat traffic."

THE splendid side-wheel packet St. Charles, Capt. C. A. Dravo, takes her departure this day at 4 P. M. for Wheeling, Marietta, Parkersburg and Cincinnati. This boat has unsurpassed accommodations and is in charge of careful and attentive officers. Passengers who have traveled on the St. Charles speak in flattering terms of her appointments. The First Clerk is Mr. W. S. Dravo, a clever and gentlemanly officer.

THE steamer Glencoe, Capt. T. S. Calhoun, has proven herself one of the best business boats yet built, and shows conclusively that Capt. Stockdale understands how to get up a boat. The following are the packages carried to New Orleans on her last trip: 11,691 sacks corn, 918 sacks oats, 650 bbls. flour, 200 bbls. meal, 217 pkgs. eggs, 40 bbls. whisky, 5 casks bacon, 9 tcs. hams, 100 bbls. potatoes, 190 bbls. pork, 120 tcs. lard, 2,253 bbls. cement, 66 coops poultry, 518 bales hay, 538 pkgs. sundries. Total packages, 17,865.

Thursday's Cincinnati Commercial says: "Capt. Bob Whitney, the well known New Orleans pilot, received a complimentary vote for Wharfmaster, in the Democratic Convention, yesterday. Captain Whitney is an old practical boatman, and competent to discharge the duties of the office. Richard H. Green, the Democratic nominee for Director of the Infirmary, is an old engineer and worthy man. He will receive the support of many old citizens. Mr. P. H. Lallance, river editor of the Cincinnati Enquirer, was among the Fleetwood's passengers yesterday, from the Lawrence county regions, where he had been rusticating a few days.

THE New Orleans Times says: The river at this port is now two and a half feet below high water mark of 1862. When we left the levee last evening the landing was pretty well cleared of freight, which is unusual at this season of the year. Doubtless the bulk of the business season is already over; if so, we may this year expect the dullest spring and summer season experienced for years. We still have plenty of sugar and molasses stored in sugar sheds, and as it has been there for some months past it is quite probable that it will remain there for some time, as we understand that shippers are awaiting a chance to ship at sixteen or seventeen cents, which rate would not pay the labor on it. Many of the Western packets which left last week, and the previous week, had recourse to railroad iron, salt and other small lots of measurement freight, and took but little, if any, sugar and molasses. The rates on sugar during the past week ruled at twenty-five cents per hundred, and will doubtless continue unchanged during the ensuing week. The steamer Bradish Johnson has laid up, in consequence of the dullness of the Red river trade.

WEDNESDAY'S Louisville Courier says: Thomas Dolly, pilot of the Green River packet Falls City, has announced himself as a candidate for Falls pilot. The Petrel, with seven barges of salt, descended the Falls yesterday, destined for Cairo, Capt. W. Varble at the wheel. Hugh Curry, one of the oldest steamboat engineers in the city, died very suddenly yesterday at his residence on Portland avenue. Capt. W. S. Vanmeter, formerly commander of the Falls City, and other Green river packets, but now proprietor of Grayson Springs, is in the city. A barge of coal belonging to the Simpson Horner tow shipped about three feet of water in the canal yesterday. The Robin and Walker Morris soon pumped it out, and the barge was taken through all right.

THE new and magnificent passenger steamer Lady Lee, Capt. Thomas Rea, takes her departure this day for St. Louis and Missouri river. This boat is one of the best boats that was ever built, is entirely new and has been fitted up expressly for a passenger packet. Capt. Rea has built a large number of boats at this port and deserves a full load. Capt. Rea is a thorough boatman and a clever gentleman, and one that deserves well of Pittsburgh. The first clerk is Mr. A. R. Armstrong, an officer of large experience, and a universal favorite with business men and passengers. Again we repeat, let the Lady Lee leave with a good trip. She deserves it. What say our shippers?

THE Memphis Avalanche, of Tuesday, says:

The towboats Mary Alice and Mohawk passed up yesterday.

The ice towboat Storm returned from Arkansas yesterday. She leaves in a day or two for above.

The Yeager had 4,200 bars of railroad iron for up the river.

The J. H. Groesbeck passed down yesterday without stopping.

The Pauline Carroll takes 1,028 sacks of oil cake and several hundred bales of cotton.

The Pauline Carroll lay here all day Sunday patching boilers.

The collision between the Legal Tender and Phil. Allin was being investigated yesterday by the Board of Inspectors. Nothing new was developed.

Gold Closed at 110⅝.

NEW YORK, March 31—P. M.

MONEY.

Money easy at 4 per cent. The indications are that the combination recently formed have concluded to abandon their intention of effecting an artificial stringency.

EXCHANGE.

Sterling Exchange 109⅝.

GOLD.

Gold opened dull at 110⅝@110⅝, but at the close was strong with 110⅝ bid.

GOVERNMENTS.

Governments were buoyant, and the entire list has advanced from ⅛ to ⅜ ₩ cent. The Post says: The new impetus given to the refunding 5-20s by the enlistment of the active services of one or two of the leading dealers in Government bonds is the only reason assigned for this decided change in the tone of the market. The inference which the street draws from this action of the leading houses referred to is that the old 5-20s will be advanced above par in gold.

Such as Constipation, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness of Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Fever and Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency or Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c., Sudden Flushes, of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil and Great Depression of Spirits.

Hoofland's German Bitters,

A Bitters WITHOUT ALCOHOL OR SPIRITS of any kind, is Different from all others. It is composed of the pure juices, or VITAL PRINCIPLE OF ROOTS, HERBS and BARKS, (or, as medically termed, Extracts), the worthless or inert portions of the ingredients not being used. Therefore, in one Bottle of this Bitters there is contained as much medicinal virtue as will be found in several gallons of ordinary mixtures. The Roots, &c., used in this Bitters are grown in Germany, their vital principles extracted in that country by a scientific Chemist, and forwarded to the manufactory in this city, where they are compounded and bottled. Containing no spirituous ingredients, this Bitters is free from the objections urged against all others; no desire for stimulants can be induced from their use; they cannot make drunkards, and cannot, under any circumstances, have any but a beneficial effect.

Hoofland's German Tonic

Was compounded for those not inclined to extreme Bitters, and is intended for use in cases when some alcoholic stimulant is required in connection with the Tonic properties of the Bitters. Each bottle of the Tonic contains one bottle of the Bitters, combined with pure SANTA CRUZ RUM, and flavored in such a manner that the extreme bitterness of the Bitters is overcome, forming a preparation highly agreeable and pleasing to the palate, and containing the medicinal virtues of the Bitters. The price of the Tonic is $1 50 per Bottle, which many persons think too high. They must take into consideration that the stimulant used is guaranteed to be of a pure quality. A poor article could be furnished at a cheaper price, but is it not better to pay a little more and have a good article? A medical preparation should contain none but the best ingredients, and they who expect to obtain a cheap compound, and be benefitted by it, will most certainly be cheated.

The Whole Supreme Court of Pennsylvania Speak for These Remedies.

Who would ask for more Dignified and Stronger Testimony?

HON. GEORGE W. WOODWARD, formerly Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, at present Member of Congress from Philadelphia, writes:

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.

I find "Hoofland's German Bitters" is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous action in the system. Yours truly, GEO. W. WOODWARD.

HON. JAMES THOMPSON, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1867.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it.
Yours, with respect, JAMES THOMPSON.

HON. GEORGE SHARSWOOD, Justice of the Supreme Court Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, June 1 1868.

I have found by experience that "Hoofland's German Bitters" is a very good tonic, relieving dyspeptic symptoms almost directly. GEORGE SHARSWOOD.

HON. WM. F. ROGERS, Mayor of the City of Buffalo, New York.

MAYOR'S OFFICE, BUFFALO, June 22, 1869.

I have used "Hoofland's German Bitters and Tonic" in my family during the past year, and can recommend them as an excellent tonic, imparting tone and vigor to the system. Their use has been productive of decidedly beneficial effects. WM. F. ROGERS.

HON. JAMES M. WOOD, ex-Mayor of Williamsport, Pa.

I take great pleasure in recommending "Hoofland's German Tonic" to any one who may be afflicted with Dyspepsia. I had the Dyspepsia so badly it was impossible to keep any food on my stomach, and I became so weak as not to be able to walk half a mile. Two bottles of Tonic effected a perfect cure. JAMES M. WOOD.

REMEMBER THAT

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

WILL CURE EVERY CASE OF

MARASMUS,

OR WASTING AWAY OF THE BODY.

REMEMBER THAT

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN REMEDIES

Are the medicines you require to purify the Blood, excite the torpid Liver to healthy action, and to enable you to pass safely through any hardships or exposure.

DR. HOOFLAND'S

PODOPHYLLIN,

OR

SUBSTITUTE FOR MERCURY PILLS,

TWO PILLS A DOSE.

The Most Powerful, Yet Innocent, Vegetable Cathartic known.

It is not necessary to take a handful of these Pills to produce the desired effect; two of them act quickly and powerfully, cleansing the Liver, Stomach and Bowels of all impurities. The principal ingredient is Podophyllin, or the Alcoholic Extract of Mandrake, which is by many times more powerful, acting and searching than the Mandrake itself. Its peculiar action is upon the Liver, cleansing it speedily from all obstructions, with all the power of Mercury, yet free from the injurious results attached to the use of that mineral.

For all diseases, in which the use of a cathartic is indicated, these pills will give entire satisfaction in every case. They NEVER FAIL.

In cases of Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia and extreme costiveness, Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic should be used in connection with the Pills. The tonic effect of the Bitters or Tonic builds up the system. The Bitters or Tonic purifies the Blood, strengthens the Nerves, REGULATES the Liver and gives strength, energy and vigor.

Keep your Bowels active with the Pills, and tone up the system with Bitters or Tonic, and no disease can retain its hold, or ever assail you.

Recollect that it is DR. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN REMEDIES that are so universally used and highly recommended; and do not allow the Druggist to induce you to take else that he may say is just as good, because he makes a larger profit on it. These Remedies will be sent by Express to any locality, upon application to the PRINCIPAL OFFICE, at the GERMAN MEDICINE STORE, 631 ARCH STREET, PHILADELPHIA.

7 Per Cent. Gold Bonds,

(Free of Government Tax),

FIRST MORTGAGE, LAND GRANT, SINKING FUND,

OF THE

West Wisconsin Railway Co.

DENOMINATIONS, $500 AND $1,000.

Only Fifteen Years to Run.

From January, 1870, convertible into Stock and receivable for Lands at par. Land Grant of over One Million Acres from Government. Upon which, together with the Road and all its Property, these Bonds are a

FIRST AND ONLY MORTGAGE.

Lands exempted from taxation for 15 years by acts of Legislature; 120 Miles Road Built, from which income is derived, with rapidly increasing receipts. But 34 miles more Road to build, for which the iron is already purchased, and all the work under contract. An Air Line from St. Paul and the Northwest to Milwaukee and Chicago. Total amount of Mortgage, $4,000,000. Estimated value of Lands alone nearly double that amount.

Price, 90c, with Accrued interest,

At which figure they pay at present premium on gold, 9 per cent. per annum to the investor. The Trustees are Hon. WILLIAM H. LEONARD, Ex-Chief Justice of Supreme Court, State of New York. J. DUTTON STEELE and JAMES GOODSON, M. P., England, where a large amount of the Bonds have been sold. These parties are required to see that proceeds of land sales are applied solely to the paying off these Bonds.

Coupons Payable January and July.

The connections of this Road with the Northern Pacific and the whole Northwest, as well as its Eastern connections, will be seen from a Pamphlet and Map, which can be obtained at the office of LEGISLATION FOR THE SOUTH.

No Chance for Shellabarger's Ku-Klux Bill in Its Present Shape—A New Rule as to Payment of Contestants of Seats, &c., &c.

Chances of the Ku-Klux Bill.

It seems to be generally conceded that Shellabarger's Ku-Klux bill cannot pass the House in its present shape. As heretofore stated, a large number of leading Republican members are entirely opposed to any bill which gives to the President the right to use the military at discretion, or to suspend the writ of habeas corpus, or contains any features in fact which looks towards the further continuance of war legislation. One of the amendments which it is proposed to submit when the proper time comes will be a section declaring universal amnesty, which seems to meet with general favor. There is no doubt but there is a fair majority in the House in favor of striking out all objectionable features in the bill now under discussion, and that when it finally passes it will be in such a modified shape as to meet general approval.

A Wholesome Rule.

The Committee of Elections, in view of the fact that the last House voted $114,000 to contestants for seats, has adopted the following rule: The Committee will not recommend the payment of any compensation beyond actual, reasonable and necessary expenses to any contestant who fails to maintain his right to a seat, and will recommend the payment of such expenses only in cases where the contest is made in good faith and with reasonable cause. Each contestant failing to sustain his claim to a seat and claiming compensation, shall present to the Committee an itemized statement under oath of his expenditures in connection with such contest, which shall be examined by the Committee, or by a sub-Committee for that purpose, and so much only shall be allowed as comes within the provisions of this rule. This covers the ground of the bill offered in the House a few days ago by Mr. McCrary, of Iowa, who is chairman of the Committee.

Registration.

The registration of voters in this District, just completed, shows a total of 19,614 voters, of whom 12,114 are whites and 7,500 colored.

Congressional.

Nearly the entire time in both the houses was spent to-day in debating the Ku-Klux question. Senator Pool and Representative Bingham each made long speeches on the subject. The Senate adjourned until Monday.

WASHINGTON, March 31.

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

At a meeting of the Democratic and Conservative Congressional Committee held to-day, a permanent organization of the Committee was effected by the selection of the following officers: Chairman, Eugene Casserly, of California; Secretaries, F. E. Sherber, of North Carolina, and Samuel N. Bell, of New Hampshire. Mr. Dox, of Alabama, in behalf of the sub-committee appointed to report a National Democratic resident committee, made the following report, which was adopted: Chairman, Samuel J. Randall, of Pennsylvania, Henry W. Slocum, of New York; Charles E. Eldridge, of Wisconsin; Wm. E. Niblack, of Indiana; Thomas Swan, of Maryland, and Richard T. Merrick, Gen. W. L. Jeffries, and T. M. Smith of the District of Columbia.

EUROPE.

BY THE ATLANTIC CABLE.

Interesting Proceedings of the English Parliament—Honor Conferred on Russians—Resignation of Cardinal Antonelli—Disturbances in Japan, &c., &c.

Proceedings of Parliament.

LONDON, March 31.—In the House of Commons last evening, Sir Chas. Dilke, in continuation of his remarks upon Russia's repudiation of the treaty of 1856, submitted a motion expressive of regret on the part of the House that the government accepted the proposition for holding a conference. Gilpin concurred both in the remarks and in the motion. He asserted that it was not the mission of England that preserved the peace of Europe, and advocated a general disarmament. Lord George Manners continued his attack upon the Ministers, who were defended by Sir Robert Peel. After having been severely castigated by the Ministerialists, Sir Charles finally withdrew his motion.

LONDON, March 31.—In the House of Lords this evening the Chancellor's bill to unseat bankrupt peers was adjourned until April 20th. In the House of Commons, Mr. Hugessen gave notice that the Government was preparing a bill providing for the confederation of the British Islands in the West Indies. Mr. Gladstone announced that the House would on Tuesday next adjourn over for the Easter holidays. Mr. Cochrane, Conservative, moved that in the opinion of the House, the Government, in view of the existing state of tranquility in Europe, should urge Prussia to moderate the terms of peace she required from France. He said the mere indemnity exacted for the expenses of the war was equal to one-sixth the entire capital of France. Mr. Cochrane added that by her lack of sympathy with France, England had lost a firm ally without gaining another. Peter Hoare seconded the motion, saying the payment of indemnity to Germany imposed an additional burden of fourteen millions yearly on French revenues.

Gladstone replied that England's conduct was applauded by all Europe. France was in the wrong as regards the immediate cause of the war, and Germany was right, though the latter is not free from blame. In the affair of the Duchies England has applauded the mode for German unity. He regretted the revelations concerning the so-called Benedetti treaty, and defended Lord Granville's policy of neutrality and his course in securing the neutrality of other powers. He believed that through the efforts of the noble Lord, Prussia had already mitigated her terms. He urged the inopportuneness of the motion, and it was withdrawn.

Sittings of the Peace Conference Suspended.

BRUSSELS, March 31.—The Peace Conference has suspended its sittings for the purpose of avoiding controversy, and its business will hereafter be conducted by the exchange of notes. Commercial questions will be settled by a special delegation from France and Germany.

Address to the Emperor.

BERLIN, March 31.—In the Reichstag yesterday, the draft of an address to the Emperor in response to his speech at the opening of the session, which had been prepared by Herr Benningsen, was adopted by a vote of 243 to 63. Six abstained from voting. The address was opposed by Catholic members, who themselves moved as an amendment an address expressing the principle that Germany should intervene with the Italian Government in the affairs of Rome. The proposition was rejected. The proper form of Government for Alsace and Lorraine has not yet been decided upon. The statements recently made to the contrary in the London Post were premature.

Elections in Spanish Colonies.

MADRID, March 31.—An order has been sent to the Captain General of Porto Rico to hold elections in that island in July. The Cuban elections will be ordered as soon as the announcement is received from Count Valmaseda that the necessary preliminaries have been completed.

Russians Honored.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 31.—Prince Gortschakoff has also received the title of Serene Highness; Baron Von Brunnow, Minister to England, the rank of Count, and General Ignatieff, Minister to Turkey, the order of St. Alexander Newsky.

The Oxford-Cambridge Race.

LONDON, March 31.—The great race between Oxford and Cambridge comes off to-morrow over the usual course between Putney and Mortlake. Owing to the condition of the course the race will be rowed in the morning before ten o'clock. The betting is six to four on Cambridge.

State of Siege Raised—Modification of the Preliminaries of Peace.

LONDON, March 31.—A dispatch from Berlin says the state of siege in the districts of France occupied by the first, second, eighth, tenth and eleventh corps has been raised from March 27th. Prisoners, however, will still be subject to trial by court martial.

The Echo du Parlement of Brussels says a convention has been signed modifying the preliminaries of peace by granting delay in the payment of the five hundred million of francs due April.

TROOPS MOVING ON PARIS.

Germans Co-operating with the Government.

The Commune Sends Troops to Disperse the Assembly.

The Crisis at Hand—"Death to the Rich, the Land Owners and Priests."

[Special to the World.]

PARIS, March 31.—The watchword of the Commune is "Death to the rich, death to land owners, death to the priests." Decrees confiscating church property have been prepared. Demonstrations are expected to be made hourly, and many persons have been arrested. The guillotine will soon be erected. The inmates of many houses have been marked as "good for the guillotine." Drafts on the Treasury are not paid either in Paris or Versailles.

Thiers to Move Against Paris—The Commune Sends Troops to Disperse the Assembly.

[Special to the World.]

PARIS, March 31.—The government has completed arrangements for moving against Paris. Troops will move simultaneously with the Germans along the line by Montmartre and Beary. Learning this, the Commune has resolved to march on Versailles to-night with thirty thousand National Guards, via Montrouge and Camp Sartory, where the infantry line is stationed. Overcoming or fraternizing these, they will proceed to Versailles and disperse the Assembly. The new decree issued by the Commune make the workmen wild with delight.

A dispatch from Fort Shaw, Montana, says: There is great excitement at this post. Buffalo are crossing the river just above the fort in immense numbers. The garrison have turned out and are slaughtering them by hundreds. It is supposed they are driven across by bands of Sioux Indians, who are said to be moving in this direction. The buffalo rub the telegraph poles down faster than men can reset them.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, March 31, 1871.

JOHN CHINAMAN TO SETTLE THE COAL TROUBLES.

It is understood that definitive propositions have been made to the managers of the great coal railroads for Chinese labor on a large scale for working the Pennsylvania coal mines. Some of the most thoughtful of the directors of those roads terminating in New York are convinced that this is their extreme resource for steady labor.

A SENSATION SPOILED.

The Brooklyn Police Commissioners to-day dismissed, for want of evidence, the charge against officer O'Keefe of selling at auction clothing infected with small pox.

The Course that Ought to be Pursued.

[From the New York Times.]

Let the cry for annexation come from the people. If Senator Sumner's elaborate arguments in favor of purchasing Alaska were worth a straw, they apply to the acquisition of San Domingo with tenfold force. But Mr. Sumner is in opposition. He was in opposition to President Lincoln more than once, but "Father Abraham" was too shrewd for him, and never allowed himself to be caught at a disadvantage. If President Grant will let the San Domingo affair take its course, after the Commissioners have reported, he will consult the interests of the Republican party, and perhaps break up the curious alliance between Senator Sumner and disappointed office seekers.

It is surely time now that we heard something about civil service reform, and about a further reduction of taxation; and it is time, also, that our foremost men prepare for that systematic warfare upon political corruption, local and national, which is the great necessity of the day. In that issue we have a cause which would attract to us once more the undivided sympathies of all our old supporters. We want to see a government conducted in all its departments on strictly honest principles—the aim and object of every department and every official being to guard the public interests. We want to see men appointed to office, not because they possess political influence, but because they are men of approved character and capacity. These aims are quite practicable, and the Republican party is in a position to accomplish them, if it will only seriously address itself to the work. We ought to fight against political jobbery everywhere—this, in part, is our mission of the future.

THE failure of the Lelands, of the Metropolitan Hotel at New York, is not to be taken to signify that the hotel business in that city, or in the country, is not profitable. What has been the matter with the Lelands is, that keeping one hotel is so remunerative they wanted to keep as many as possible, and had so extended their operations that it became inconvenient for them to pay their bills to grocers and butchers, and they succumbed to the pressure of the tradesmen and went into bankruptcy. The moral is that whereas one hotel may be a good thing, a number of them may prove ruinous. The Metropolitan, which is owned by A. T. Stewart, has been rented to William M. Tweed for five years, at an annual rental of $60,000 per year for the first two years, and $65,000 for the remaining three years, and Mr. Tweed's son, Richard, will be installed as nominal proprietor, though Abraham Garfield, of the Delavan House at Albany, will be the real manager. The hotel will be henceforth, of course, the grand headquarters of Tammany.

A Company to Insure In.

The business done by the Ben Franklin Insurance Company, of Allegheny, has increased most wonderfully among all those who appreciate a really first class responsible insurance safeguard against all losses that may occur from fire or water. The high appreciation in which it is held by the business firms of Allegheny is proven by the large number of risks which it has taken, and the entire and complete satisfaction it has given in every case of loss to any of those holding its policies. The gentlemen composing its Board of Directors are well known as persons of integrity and honor, and are held with every respect and confidence in the opinion of every one whom they may have been, through business relations, brought in contact. The business of the Ben Franklin is increasing yearly, and it bids fair to outstrip many of its older contemporaries in a very short time. The manner in which risks are taken in this favorite company, and the reasonable rates charged thereon, are great cards in its favor with insurers. To those who may desire to secure their property against loss by fire, it would be advisable to immediately secure a policy of insurance in this company. Call on R. E. Heron, General Agent, No. 41 Ohio street, Allegheny, and he will accommodate you.

WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH.

Removal of the Company's Offices in this City—The New Quarters.

The Western Union Telegraph Company removed their offices in this city yesterday, from the Dispatch building to the First National Bank building, corner of Fifth avenue and Wood street, the most central and convenient location for their business in the city.

THE NEW QUARTERS.

The elegance, comfort and convenience of the new quarters of this prosperous and invaluable institution are such as to be worthy of a notice, and we herewith give a brief description of the several offices, commencing with the

BATTERY ROOM

Which is situated on the fifth floor, at the west end of the building, fronting on the alley. It was fitted up expressly for the purpose of a battery room, and is perfect in all its appointments. The floor is of cement; there is a stone trough in one corner of the room for washing the jars in, and leading from it is a stone water pipe. A hoisting apparatus is arranged by means of which the acids and other supplies are hoisted into the room. There are five main batteries, which set upon tables of wood covered with three coats of asphaltum and one coat of paraffine, which is said to be the best non-conductor known.

OPERATOR'S ROOM.

On the front floor and occupying the full area of the building, except that portion in which the stairway is situated, is the main operating room, which for comfort and convenience is unsurpassed by any other office in the country. The room is in the form of an "L," fronting sixty feet on Fifth avenue and thirty feet on Wood street, and is lighted by nine double windows. There are twenty tables upon which are forty instruments worked by thirty-six operators. At one side of the room is a wardrobe for coats and hats above which is a case for supplies. In the corner to the left of the entrance is a wash room and water closet with stationary marble wash-stand and furnished in elegant style. The most important piece of furniture, or rather machinery, in the room, is the Ottawa switch with Henning's improvement. This is the only switch of the kind in the county and is said to be better adapted to the purposes for which it is intended than any other switch in use. It is only 43x43 inches square, and governs sixty wires. In another corner of the room is situated the local battery which is enclosed in a closet or case so as to protect it from the dirt or dust. The furniture in this room is all finished in oak, as is also the woodwork of the room itself. There are two clocks, one at either end of the room, so that the operators from any part of the room can see the time without leaving his instrument, and as every operator is required to affix the hour to every message received or forwarded, this is a very necessary convenience. There are sixty wires entering the office, from two office polls, one on the southeast corner of Fifth avenue and Wood street, and the other on Fifth avenue opposite the center of the bank building. These poles are fifty-five feet high, with a large guilded acorn on the top. The operating room is complete in all its appointments, and a perfect model of convenience in every respect.

SUPERINTENDENT'S ROOM.

On the third floor, about the center of the building, and fronting on Fifth avenue, is the private office of the Superintendent, Charles O. Rowe, which has been fitted up in splendid style. The floor is covered with fine Brussels carpet of a beautiful pattern. A chandelier of eight burners, and three side brackets furnish the necessary light; a stationary marble top washstand occupies one corner of the room, and the furniture consists of three elegant black walnut desks, a large black walnut cabinet, or supply case, with chairs, a table and other necessary furniture. Upon one of the desks is an instrument which is connected with wires with all the main lines in the office, as well as with the several local lines, so that the Superintendent can sit in his private office and communicate with any office on the line. The office, like the others described, is complete in every respect, and when occupied by the genial and accommodating Superintendent is as pleasant a retreat as could be desired, and we know of no one who is more deserving of such comfortable quarters than Mr. Rowe, as his services to the company are indispensable, and its patrons could illy spare him.

THE BUSINESS OFFICE.

The main business office receiving room and office of the manager is situated in the corner room on the basement floor, and is a perfect model for convenience. There are two entrances, one from Fifth avenue, and one from Wood street. A tastefully curved counter of walnut and ash separates the office from the lobby, the top of which is a black walnut casing set with ground glass. A pneumatic tube connects with the operator's room, by means of which all messages received and to be forwarded are transmitted from one to the other. In this room is the commercial market department, placed there as a matter of convenience to the business men and patrons of the company.

On the whole the office is the most complete in all its appointments for comfort, convenience of location, etc., of any similar office in the country.

Within the past few months the company have been making improvements in their lines and the several offices about the city. They have erected over three hundred new poles throughout the city. The poles are of white cedar, fifty-five feet in height, and are provided with cross arms for fifty wires. They were brought from Green Bay, Wisconsin. They are neatly tapering, of a uniform size, and being painted white are an ornament to the city, when compared to those formerly used.

We are under obligations to Mr. C. H. Summers, electrician of the Central Division, and to Mr. Chas. G. Rowe, the Superintendent, for favors extended in our search for information relative to the new office and its workings.

FELONIOUS ASSAULT.

A Man Attacked by Two Men, One of Whom Shoots Him—The Victim Reported to be Dangerously Injured.

George C. Patterson, of Plum township, made information before Mayor Brush yesterday, charging William and John M. Ross with felonious assault and battery. It appears there has been a quarrel between these two brothers and a man named Harmer D. Lawson, concerning the wife of one of the parties. The brothers Ross were about to emigrate to Kansas. Thursday night, it is alleged, they met and attacked Lawson. One of the brothers was armed with a gun, and the other with a pistol. William Ross, the one with the pistol, is alleged to have fired at Lawson, after the quarrel had progressed some time.

The ball took effect in the neck of Mr. Lawson, inflicting a very serious and dangerous wound. Yesterday morning it was feared the injured man would die. It appears that no one save the parties participating in the affair, was present when the shooting was done. The wounded man made the statement of the transaction as we have given it above. On the information thus received, Mr. Patterson came to the city and preferred the charge as previously stated. Warrants were issued for the arrest of the accused, and officers Cupples and Rush went to make the arrests. It is quite probable, however, that the men they look for will not be easily found. Last evening the mother and sister of the injured man called at the Mayor's office and furnished Chief of Police Hague with a photograph of William Ross, which may prove effective in arresting him.

TO-MORROW.

Palm Sunday—Its Origin—How it is Observed.

The Sunday preceding Easter is commonly recognized throughout the Christian world as Palm Sunday, and has from an early period in the history of the church been commemorated. The day is observed more particularly in the Roman Catholic churches, in all of which interesting and impressive services will be held. In countries where the palm trees do not grow the box, yew, or willow are substituted. After mass the branches are blessed by the priest and distributed to the people, who carry them to their homes. This they do in commemoration of the Savior's triumphant and glorious entry into the Holy City, when as will be recollected, the people went out to meet him, bearing in their arms branches of palm trees and shouting Hosanna, &c.

In England, before the change of religion, the Palm Sunday customs were of an elaborate character. The flowers and branches designed to be used by the clergy were laid upon the high altar; those to be used by the laity upon the south step of the altar. The priest, arrayed in a red cope, consecrated them with prayers, perfumed them with frankincense from censers, and sprinkled them with holy water. The flowers and branches were then distributed, a procession formed, at the head of which walked the priests, carrying crucifixes. The procession, after passing through the town, returned to the church where mass was performed, and the branches and flowers offered at the altar.

It was also customary in some places to have in the procession a wooden figure representing an ass, upon which was seated an image of the Savior. Previous to starting a priest told the people what Christ had done for them; that he entered Jerusalem thus mounted, and that the people strewed the ground with branches of the palm tree. The procession then started, and as it passed, the assembly threw their branches before it, which were quickly picked up, as they were thought to be a sure protection against storms and lightning during the ensuing year.

Another custom was the throwing of cakes from the steeple of the parish church, which occasioned considerable amusement from the fact that the boys were eager in scrambling for them. After the Reformation, 1536, Henry VIII declared that the carrying of palms on this day should be one of the ceremonies, and the custom was kept up until the reign of Edward VI, when it was left to the voluntary observance of the people.

CITY MATTERS IN BRIEF.

THIS is all fools day.

THE peach crop is reported to be very promising.

NINE cases were heard by Mayor Brush yesterday morning.

THIRTY days to the workhouse for wife beating was given John Wagner by Mayor Brush, yesterday.

THE Allegheny County Teachers Institute will meet on Monday next in the Fourth ward Public School Building.

AN old gentleman from Kentucky was victimized to the tune of seventy-five dollars by confidence men on board a train of the Pennsylvania Railroad on Thursday.

THE Market Committee recommend the purchase of the Denny site for a market house in the Sixteenth ward, and the acceptance of both the Renier and Baum sites in East Liberty.

AN evening contemporary decribes three confidence men who are in the city. "Verdant" countrymen, large numbers of whom will be in town to-day, should be on their guard for the 'genteel gentlemen.'"

ALEX. J. MONTGOMERY, Esq., Sheriff of Armstrong County, is at present receiving the congratulations of his numerous friends, he having married the accomplished daughter of John Ballentine, Esq., Controller of the Allegheny Valley Railroad.

MR. J. A. HALL, son of John Hall, Esq., Deputy U. S. Marshal, has been appointed mail agent on the Chartiers Valley Railroad, between this city and Washington, Pa. Mr. Hall, for several years past, has been clerk in the postoffice at Washington, and will doubtless make an efficient officer.

YESTERDAY MORNING at the hearing in the case of George Leibel, Mrs. Porter was present and showed her injured hand. Its condition, with corroborative testimony went to show that the pistol was loaded with powder only. The hand was burned with powder, but nothing more serious had happened to it. The testimony showed that Leibel was not quite right in his mind and the Mayor sent him to the Poor Farm.

THERE were three hundred and fifty-eight convicts in the Western Penitentiary yesterday, which is a less number than has been in the institution for four years and six months, and this number will be decreased one to-day by reason of expiration of term of service. There has been but one death in the institution within the past nineteen months, and but one preconcerted attempt to escape within the last year.

WE HAD the pleasure yesterday of meeting with Lieut. Abijah Furguson, whose familiar face has been missing from the city for some five years. Lieut. F. went through the Mexican war with the Jackson Independent Blues, and for meritorious services was promoted from a sergeant to first lieutenant. Shortly after his return from the war he met with an accident which incapacitated him from the more active duties of life, and for some years he was the genial, accommodating watchman around the court house grounds. For the past five years he has been residing in the mountains above Uniontown, and is now on a visit to his old home. He looks hale and hearty, and is warmly welcomed by his many friends.

THIRTY-FIVE passenger cars of the Pennsylvania Railroad are supplied with fittings and are lighted by gas. Each car takes enough to last for sixty hours steady burning. The cars are supplied here. Arrangements for supplying the cars are being made at various points East and West. The arrangements at Philadelphia were concluded on Wednesday, and those at Altoona and Chicago will soon be completed. We will publish a description of the modus operandi of supplying the cars, when we have more space at hand.

Courtesy Illustrated—A Pattern for Retail Merchants.

To the Editor of the Pittsburgh Commercial:

A week ago I had occasion to purchase a spring overcoat for a friend residing some distance in the country, who forwarded me the amount together with the size required. As he particularly stated a "nobby one," it struck me that the only place to fully realize his views must be at Nutting's, 42 Sixth street.

Thither I repaired, and making my wants known to a very gentlemanly salesman, I was in a few minutes satisfied with a fine melton spring overcoat, for which I paid twenty (20) dollars and left the address of my friend, for whom it was purchased, to be sent by express. A week elapsed, and I received a letter saying the coat was two sizes too large, and he could not possibly use it, so returned it, and had purchased in his town the same day the coat was received. What was I to do? this was the first question that suggested itself; and after deliberating some time, I decided to visit Mr. Nutting and, if possible, to induce him to receive the coat with a liberal discount.

On entering the store, I recognized Mr. Nutting, and approaching him, stated the reason why I intruded on his valuable time, etc., etc. He waited patiently until I had ended my story, which was somewhat mixed up, owing to the unpleasant circumstances, and instead of saying, as nine-tenths, in fact, any of the dealers I have met with would say "what do you expect us to pay you," or, "we can't exchange this. What did you pay for this coat?" Receiving my answer, he turned to the cashier and said, "pay this gentleman twenty dollars," and then turning to me smilingly said, "is there anything else I can do for you sir?" Being so completely surprised, I could scarcely say a word of thanks; and on my recovering my equilibrium, he was busily engaged with some customers. So I pocketed my money and left, secretly resolving to prove my appreciation of such courteous treatment and to use all my influence with my friends to increase his sales. And I promise you, Mr. Editor, as gentlemanly treatment, and I think, good clothing as you ever wish for, should you be induced by this article to visit Nutting—one whom it be well for retailers to copy.

PITTSBURGH, March 31, 1871.

Worthy of Every Encouragement.

The new idea which Messrs. McClain, Stubner & Co., No. 169 Smithfield street, have introduced into their business, the art of working monograms and the decorating of china ware and toilet sets, Lodge and society table ware, is indeed worthy of every attention, and should receive the hearty support of all our citizens. By the appliances in the shape of everything necessary to carry on their business successfully, and produce an article which will give every satisfaction, the gentlemen composing this firm have spared no pains or expense in procuring, and by their thorough knowledge of the manner in which the desired result is attained, they feel sure of giving every satisfaction in the filling of all orders left in their hands, for decorating and the painting of monograms on china ware, etc., etc. By the process which they use, old china redecorated in a superior manner, and warranted for years. Call and see the samples of their work.

Pittsburgh Law Association.

A. M. Brown, Esq., President of the Pittsburgh Law Association, will deliver the annual address before that body this afternoon in the District Court room. It is expected the attendance will be large and the proceedings interesting upon this, the occasion of the first anniversary of the association.

WELL MADE AND BEAUTIFUL CARRIAGES.—A large and complete stock of well made light wagons and carriages are now on sale at Stoner & Mariatt's Carriage Manufactory and Sales Rooms, Nos. 167, 169 and 171 Penn street. They cannot be surpassed in their finish and durability. They are handsome, and are selling at very reasonable prices. Call in and examine them, and if you want a good article you will buy one.

The Singer.

So much has been said in a general way of the superiority of the Singer Sewing Machine over its rivals that we propose to give, in detail, some of the points in which it excels:

First—In its combination of all the advantages of other machines, avoiding their defects.

Second—It has a tension that will admit of any changes of needle, thread or goods, without adjustment. It is really self-adjusting.

Third—It has less machinery than any other lock-stitch machine in the market, and requires no regulating or adjusting whatever.

Fourth—It has the shortest needles, which cannot well be set wrong, and which are perfectly straight.

Fifth—It requires no taking apart or lifting from the table to oil or clean.

Sixth—The length of stitch can be changed without reaching in among the machinery, endangering and oiling the hands, as is the case with all other shuttle machines.

Seventh—All other lock stitch machines require that the under thread be rewound from the spool on to a bobbin; a tedious process requiring considerable skill. If you have a Singer, you can buy your thread ready wound on wooden bobbins as cheaply as though you purchased the common spools and rewound.

Eighth—All the movable parts are made of highly polished steel.

Ninth—Its attachments for hemming, felling, &c., are thoroughly practical, and require as little skill to use them as is necessary to sew a straight seam on any other machine.

Persons who first examine the Singer cannot be induced to purchase any other kind.

It costs nothing to see the Singer in operation. It is sold on as favorable terms as any machine in the market, by Straw & Morton, No. 20 Sixth street.

VARIETIES.—Those who want to see the delightful dancing of the Alhambra troupe should not fail to attend the matinee, or the evening performance at this house. The variety company was never stronger than now.

MASONIC HALL.—Monday afternoon the two-headed girl, the Nova Scotia giantess and the good looking Kentucky giant commence their receptions. They have created a great furore in the East, being visited daily by immense crowds.

ALLEGHENY.

MOVING ACCIDENT.

Three Persons Thrown from a Wagon and Severely Injured.

Mr. Ogden, of the firm of Ogden & Martin, job printers, in the Diamond, was severely injured yesterday morning about ten o'clock, in company with two others, by being thrown from a wagon. Mr. Ogden yesterday morning commenced moving from his late residence in Frazier's row in the North Diamond, to Boyle street, above Locust. He had hired a horse and wagon from Messrs. Bergher & De Larimer, and employed Johnson Porter and Moses Hawthorn, a young man sixteen years of age, to assist him.

At the time of the accident, he had just hauled one load to his new house, and after unloading, he and his two employees jumped on the wagon. In turning, the lines got entangled in one of the fore wheels and the wheel got under the bed, almost capsizing it, and threw Mr. Ogden and Porter violently to the ground, and the young man into the bed of the wagon. Mr. Ogden fell on his knees, and the cap of his right knee was split, and the cap of the other knee wos badly injured. He also sustained severe bruises. Mr. Porter was more fortunate, and escaped with only a few slight bruises. Mr. Ogden was carried into the house and Dr. Mabon summoned.

The horse galloped down Locust street until the wagon collided with a tree, throwing Mr. Hawthorn out, who fell on his head, and received a frightful gash on the side of his head. He was also otherwise severely injured. He was removed to Mr. Ogden's residence, where he also received attention at the hands of Dr. Mabon, after which he was removed to his home on Pride street. Mr. Ogden, last night, was doing as well as could be expected, but it will be some time before he will be able to walk about. Mr. Hawthorn is the most seriously injured, and it is feared his injuries will prove fatal. The horse, after colliding with the tree, became separated from the wagon but was caught soon after. The wagon was totally demolished.

OUR SCHOOLS.

Interesting Examinations in the Fifth Ward Public School.

During the week, examinations have been held in the different rooms of the Fifth ward public school, all of which were very creditable both to scholars and teachers. The examinations were commenced on Monday morning, and continued every day until yesterday afternoon, when the High school was examined. The attendance at each of the examinations was large, showing the interest felt by the parents in the school, and a desire to see what progress their children have made in their studies.

One feature of the examination was, that the pupils were not "posted" on the questions that would be asked them, which has been the custom for many years past, and is still practiced in the majority of our schools. The different classes were examined in all that portion of the books they had studied during the term, and the questions were selected at the time of the examination by the teacher indiscriminately, and if the pupil was not familiar or had not studied his lessons faithfully during the term, he would be unable to answer the questions. The County Superintendent and the visitors also interrogated the classes, and almost every question was promptly answered, showing the great proficiency attained by the pupils. We do not speak of any one room in particular, but the pupils from the primary department to the High School showed the same careful training, and the same readiness to answer almost every question asked them by the County Superintendent or visitors. All the teachers are earnestly devoted to their work, and take great interest in their pupils, which fact alone accounts for the great progress made by the pupils, of whom they may well feel proud.

During the progress of the examinations in the different rooms, a number of excellent songs were sung by the scholars between the recitations, one of the lady pupils accompanying on the organ, showing that this important branch was not neglected. Essays were also read in the higher rooms, and showed much ability. We almost forgot to mention the beautiful specimens of drawing by the pupils on the blackboard, which were covered with a great variety of birds, animals, flowers, etc., etc., all of which are exceedingly well executed. The drawing books of the pupils were distributed among the visitors, who expressed themselves well pleased with their efforts in this direction. To conclude, the examinations throughout were very satisfactory, and we do not hesitate in saying that this school will compare favorably with those in this or any other city.

Great Bargains at S. Hamilton & Co's. New Music Warerooms.

In pianos, organs, &c., are still being offered at S. Hamilton & Co's. new music warerooms, 51 Fifth avenue, and it is very conclusive evidence that both their instruments and their prices suit the people, by the fact that they can scarcely get their stock on fast enough to supply the demand for them, but their arrangements are such that they will hereafter receive a regular weekly supply, so that all can be served promptly. They are just in receipt of a most beautiful stock of both pianos and organs, which they are offering at their same greatly reduced prices as heretofore, and on the same terms. They will rent any of their instruments, and make arrangements to allow the rent on the purchase. Every instrument fully warranted. Monthly payments taken; and remember prices are guaranteed lower than anywhere else in the city. S. Hamilton & Co., 51 Fifth avenue, Pittsburgh, McCallum's building. Pocket Manuals for Practical Use.

The technical series of Cassell's Drawing Books, for carpenters, joiners, machinists, builders, cabinet makers, stone masons, tin plate workers, plumbers, &c., &c.:

1. Linear Drawing—150 engravings; price $1 00; a work which will enable pupils to acquire a considerable amount of information with ease and rapidity.

2. Projection—The development of surfaces and penetration of solids; 46 engravings; price $1 00; with the author's help, workmen may exchange the famous "rule of the thumb" for the more wonderful lamp of the rule of science.

3. Systematic Drawing and Shading—88 engravings; price $1 00; this book should find a place wherever technical education is being promoted.

5. Building Construction and Architectural Drawing: 130 engravings. Price $1. A portion of this work is specially devoted to drawings for stone masons, bricklayers, and carpenters and joiners.

5. Drawing for Carpenters and Joiners; 250 engravings. Price $1 75. This is an invaluable work and should be in the hands of every intelligent workman.

6. Practical Perspective; 64 engravings. Price $1 50. Brief and clear, carefully graduated, examples all clearly drawn, renders perspective as familiar as household words.

7. Drawing for Machinists; 250 engravings, double and treble page size. Price $2. This work is a very excellent one. The instructions for drawing and coloring are all that could be desired.

Cabinet Organs.

The business of the Mason & Hamlin Organ Company, has constantly as well as rapidly, increased in extent, last week having brought them more orders than they ever before received in the same time, including one by cable from London for thirty-six organs. This is the legitimate result of making always and only best work, and selling it to all alike at lowest remunerative profit. They, however, give credit for much of the acknowledged superiority of their instruments to the exclusive use in them of several patented novelties of construction. Having none of that mistaken pride which would lead them to value nothing not originated by themselves, they are eager to avail themselves of every improvement, wherever made. Thus their organs represent the best results of invention and skill yet attained in instruments of that class.

Splendid fresh lot of the Mason & Hamlin Organs received at the Music Rooms of Mellor & Hoene, 53 Fifth avenue, next door to Masonic Hall. Call and see them. Every instrument fully warranted. Monthly installments taken.

A Popular Hotel to Stop at—The St. James

Is decidedly the house for all strangers visiting Pittsburgh to stop at. The very popular and worthy host, Mr. J. K. Lanahan, has proven himself entitled to all that has been said about his qualities and abilities as one thoroughly conversant in every detail in managing a hotel. At the St. James every accommodation for guests is provided, and nothing is left undone that will add to their being perfectly "at home" while stopping. Attached to the house is a first class restaurant, where meals can be procured at all hours and at very reasonable prices. The St. James being kept on the European plan, those who stop are simply charged for what they get, or the time for which they may occupy or use rooms, meals being obtained at the restaurant on the first floor, or sent up to their rooms when required. For strangers and travelers the St. James is the place to stop, and they can rely upon satisfaction and comfort.

CORNER OF

Irwin and Lincoln Avenues,

AT AUCTION.

Monday Evening, April 3d,

AT 7½ O'CLOCK,

At A. LEGGATE'S REAL ESTATE AND STOCK EXCHANGE, 159 FEDERAL STREET, will be sold the Property of J. P. Lyon, corner of Irwin and Lincoln avenues, Allegheny. The Lot is 25x198 feet to an alley. The House is a three-story Brick, neatly and substantially built, of handsome external appearance and fitted up internally with all the modern conveniences. The first floor contains Parlor 33 feet in length, large Drawing-room and Kitchen. The second floor has 3 Chambers and a Sitting Room. The third floor has 4 Chambers. Cemented Cellar underlies the whole House, is perfectly dry and contains Washhouse and Steam Heater. There are two Water Closets, Bathroom, Pantry, Storeroom and several Closets, Marble Mantles, Stationery Washstands, Hot and Cold Water, Steam Registers, and handsome Gas Fixtures throughout, all the ceilings are high, every room is well lighted and ventilated and the whole House has a cheerful appearance. The exposure is east, the view of the Park very fine and extensive, and the adjacent Dwellings first class. The advantage of possessing the corner of the two finest avenues in the city is apparent. In short, this is an exceedingly desirable Residence. Possession given by May 15, when the owner moves permanently to his country residence.

TERMS—Third cash; balance in four equal half yearly payments. The House will be exhibited to visitors every afternoon till day of sale.
